TIMELESS Wonders

If you stand on Salisbury Plain at sunrise or sunset it's easy to understand why the ancient Britons believed Stonehenge was special, and even today people from across the globe make the pilgrimage here. Outstanding exhibition galleries at the Stonehenge visitor centre set the stone circle in its historic context.

At Avebury, where the great stone circle forms a huge ring enclosing part of the village, misty mornings can be magical. The wider landscape surrounding both monuments is home to numerous other ancient structures, so here you can truly touch the past. West Kennet Long Barrow is one of Britain's largest Stone Age burial sites, while the origins of Silbury Hill, the largest man-made mound in Europe, are lost in the mists of time.

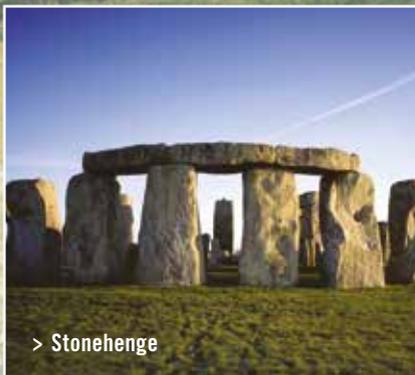

Among Wiltshire's other iconic sights are its White Horses carved into the rolling chalk downs.

Salisbury Cathedral offers one superlative after another and the awesome sight of its spire soaring a breathtaking 123 metres (404 feet) into the air never fails to impress. Within the Cathedral's Chapter House you'll find an exhibition showcasing the best preserved of four original 1215 Magna Carta manuscripts. For an unforgettable experience, a Tower Tour leads you up narrow, winding staircases to the foot of the spire, 225 feet above ground where you can enjoy panoramic views across Salisbury.

> Iford Arts Festival

Whether your ideal break is calming, comforting, refreshing, or bursting with high adrenalin excitement, Wiltshire is the perfect antidote to overcrowded cities.

Our thriving arts scene is as inventive as it is engaging. Top quality venues include the South West's leading producing theatre, a music centre with 'the finest acoustic outside London', plus cinemas, arts centres and more. Our range of events is equally exciting, encompassing street theatre and dance, classical, jazz and world music, as well as carnivals, fairs, street and folk festivals.

You can team up with a local guide to discover tales of mystery, myth and legend, or try your hand at falconry, fishing or golf; pony trekking or a canal boat trip; a skydive or hot air balloon flight; a treasure hunt or off-road driving experience. If the weather throws a spanner in the works there are ample indoor activities to choose from too, from spas and cookery schools to escape games, go karting and laser combat.

Wiltshire has taken centre stage in a wide range of big screen and TV productions, from swashbuckling adventures to Jane Austen classics. Most recently, Wiltshire locations have featured in Downton Abbey, Poldark, Wolf Hall, War Horse and some of the Harry Potter films. Lacock, Castle Combe, Corsham, Stourhead and Great Chalfield Manor are among the filmmakers favourites and well worth a visit.

Peaceful, relaxed and unhurried the shopping streets of Salisbury and many historic Wiltshire towns are home to a wealth of independent retailers, as well as colourful markets and top notch designer outlets. We also pride ourselves on the quality of our food and drink, making the most of delicious local produce and keeping traditional specialities alive, with plenty of coffee shops, tearooms, pubs and restaurants around the county. For something a little different, why not follow the Saints and Sinners heritage trail, which twins four of the county's historic churches with nearby pubs and hotels: visitchurches.org.uk/saintsandsinnerswiltshire

GOSKYDIVE

Skydiving over Salisbury Plain is the experience of a lifetime and one you will never forget. Imagine an experience that puts your senses into overdrive. One that has your heart racing, the adrenaline pumping. And that leaves you so ecstatic you want to scream out loud. A tandem skydive is the ultimate adrenaline rush. When you jump out of a plane at 10-15,000 feet, you're putting your trust in a total stranger. Literally throwing yourself into the unknown. Freefalling at 125mph is an experience like nothing on earth. Beyond exhilarating, it defies description. The only way to understand it is to do it.

GoSkydive is a specialist tandem skydiving centre, fully regulated by and affiliated with the British Parachute Association. We specialise in customer focussed tandem skydiving days and over 14,000 people have jumped with us. Skydiving from an altitude of 10,000ft gives you approximately 25-30 seconds of freefall time. For a pulse-racing 60 seconds of freefall choose the 15,000ft skydive – it's the UK's highest!

TIMELESS Nature

Easy to explore, yet off the beaten track, Wiltshire is one of Britain's best kept secrets. It's an enchanted place where you feel close to the earth and the ever-changing big skies. The landscape's mood alters with the seasons, connecting you not just to nature, but to time itself. See how the light changes the texture of the hills and think of others admiring the same spectacle over thousands of years.

Almost half the county's landscape lies within an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. From the gentle meadows of the Pewsey Vale to wilder expanses of upland, the North Wessex Downs is a nationally protected landscape. So too is Cranborne Chase and the West Wiltshire Downs, which stretches in a giant undulating swathe across the south of the county. Parts of north and west Wiltshire lie within the Cotswolds, where honey-coloured villages meld seamlessly into rolling hills. Acres of ancient woodland can be found in the Savernake Forest and on the borders of the New Forest National Park. And at the heart of the county lies the vast, untouched expanse of Salisbury Plain.

Miles of ancient drove roads and quiet country lanes make exploring Wiltshire a pleasure. Travelling under your own steam gives you time to appreciate Wiltshire's beautiful and varied landscape and with over 8,200 paths for walkers and cyclists our countryside might well have been invented with outdoor pursuits in mind.

Wiltshire is blessed with an outstanding array of walks, offering something for all levels of enthusiasm. Follow in the footsteps of the ancient drovers, meander through our market towns or amble along the towpath of the Kennet & Avon Canal. Walk the Wansdyke, roam along the Ridgeway or tackle the Thames Path.

Seasoned experts, enthusiastic amateurs and nervous newbies alike will find plenty of on- and off-road cycle routes to suit their level of ability too, from short hops to long-distance trails. Whichever you follow, you'll find new stories around every corner.

Today life is hectic. Too hectic. We're all so busy. 24/7 this, 4G that. Forever rushing around. Time poor. Wiltshire is calming, comforting, refreshing. So escape to Wiltshire and let Wiltshire put back what the rest of the week takes out.

TIMELESS Places

Wiltshire has been a special place for a very long time and our World Heritage Site stands testament to the ages. Stonehenge and Avebury have a magnetism that has drawn people to them for centuries. Wiltshire is also rolling green downs, ancient woodlands and bustling market towns. Parish churches, historic houses and country inns. Timeless monuments and contemporary luxury. Arts and culture, festivals and events. Local ales and picnics in the park. In short, the England you love in one county.

> Lacock

> Ludgershall Castle

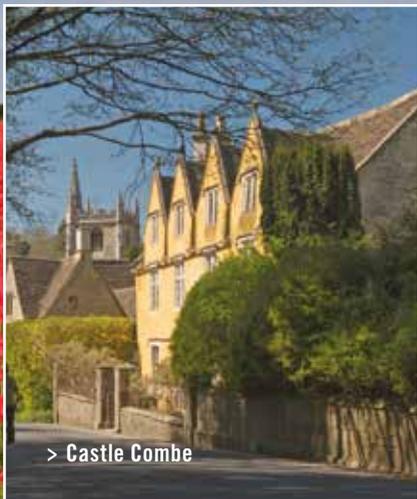

Immortalised in the paintings of Turner and Constable the medieval city of Salisbury, is the perfect fusion of ancient and modern. If you pause on the edge of the water-meadows to take in the awesome sight of the Cathedral rising up from these lush green fields, it's easy to understand why this has been described as 'Britain's Best View' by readers of Country Life magazine. And Wiltshire has many other historic towns and villages to discover too. Friendly, relaxed and welcoming, each has something unique to offer, whether it be stylish independent shops and colourful markets, tempting pubs and restaurants, or great entertainment.

“In Wiltshire you can

With archaeology collections of outstanding national importance, our museums are the perfect places to unearth the secrets of our journey through time. But history in Wiltshire is not only ancient. Later civilisations also left their mark, bequeathing tangible connections with the past, including a clutch of impressive castles. In centuries past, railways and canals were vital to Wiltshire's prosperity, as was the textile industry, and Wiltshire's industrial heritage can be experienced today at towns and attractions around the county.

Through the ages the drama and majesty of Wiltshire's landscape has offered the perfect backdrop for the homes of the privileged and wealthy. These magnificent stately homes frame stories that bring the history of England to life. What's more, they come complete with equally outstanding surroundings, from acres of landscaped parkland to intimate formal and informal gardens making them the perfect places to step back in time whilst enjoying the present.

300th Anniversary 'CAPABILITY' BROWN

2016 sees the 300th anniversary of the birth of master landscaper Lancelot 'Capability' Brown. At Bowood he created a flowing mix of woodlands and lawns sloping down to a lake, a fitting setting for the impressive 18th century house designed by Robert Adam. The extensive grounds at Longleat also owe their magnificence to his ground-breaking vision, while the 16th century house is an outstanding example of high Elizabethan architecture.

AMESBURY

The home of Stonehenge, historic Amesbury is an interesting town sitting on the River Avon.

Recognized as the oldest continuous living settlement in the country, dating back over 8000 years BC, before Stonehenge.

Offering accommodation, local shops, restaurants and inns - the town is a great stopping point for travellers and visitors to Stonehenge and south Wiltshire. With plenty of parking, including coach spaces in the town centre.

Discover a breath taking museum housing one of Britain's largest mesolithic collections and the amazing story of how life was before and around Stonehenge.

The 13th century George Hotel houses an Aviation Heritage Centre - showing the story of the first use of planes by the Military in the area. Also, the Antrobus Arms Hotel, famous for The Beatles, who stayed there whilst filming Help on Salisbury Plain.

At Solstice Park you can see the mighty Ancestor sculpture, representing the earliest settlers in Amesbury around 10,000 years ago.

To the south of the town lies Archers Gate, named after the Amesbury Archer who was found nearby. A sculpture depicting the Archer stands in the arcade there and an incredible town mosaic can be seen, telling the story of Amesbury.

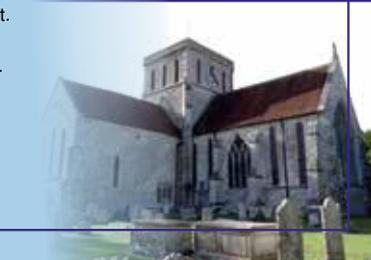

The town offers many interesting walks both in the Stonehenge Landscape and close to the River Avon. There is a 2 mile walk to Stonehenge from Amesbury across the historic landscape, which is both invigorating and interesting.

To the north is Woodhenge - a neolithic site, which is an equally interesting site to visit. Closer to the town is Lords Walk which gives you a unique view of the River Avon as well as a nature walk down the old Lime Tree way.

Guides to these walks and other information can be found in the Community & Visitor Centre, in the town centre.

The 10th century church of St Mary and St Melor houses a 15th century clock that is believed to have been built for the Benedictine Abbey. Also, crusader crosses, royal floor tiles and see the story of Queen Eleanor of Provence, who was given a royal funeral in Amesbury in 1291.

If you love birds and like walking by tranquil lakes then Langford Lakes is the perfect spot for you to visit. Nestled in the Wylye Valley between Salisbury and Warminster, it is an ideal place for bird watching. The four lakes provide a vital stopping off point and resident habitat for about 150 different bird species. The reserve has a relaxing atmosphere with good level paths for disabled access and you can enjoy watching wildfowl from five hides overlooking the lakes. Residents include kingfisher, water rail and gadwall. You can also get day tickets to fish on the Wylye for wild brown trout and grayling - catch and release only. The site has two centres which can be hired for children's birthday parties, meetings and small wedding receptions. No dogs allowed on site.

An unmissable day out

In 2016 Longleat celebrates the 50th anniversary of its incredible Safari Park. By introducing lions to the private estate in 1966, Longleat became the first drive-through safari experience outside of Africa. We now have over 1,000 animals which will be celebrated during, what will be, a fantastic year.

Join us to mark our birthday with great shows and events for all the family at Easter, and an African Summer will then take over the park with exciting parades, live shows and brilliant activities. The Festival of Light at Longleat, our stunning Chinese lantern festival, returns to top off the year of celebrations fit for a king!

TISBURY

Tisbury, in the valley of the River Nadder, is a hidden gem; an excellent base from which to explore the surrounding countryside. Parking in the car park is free; plus there is the bonus of a mainline railway station, with easy links to/from Salisbury, London and Exeter. The bustling high street of local shops, pubs and businesses is just a couple of minutes away.

Enjoy the superb network of public footpaths and bridleways, discover award-winning pubs, welcoming B&Bs and holiday cottages. Tisbury Post Office sells excellent walk books showcasing this beautiful, unspoilt Wiltshire countryside; or download maps from www.discovernadder.org.uk

Tisbury is home to (arguably) the largest Tithe Barn in the UK. Situated at the edge of the village and in use as an Arts Exhibition Centre, this stunning Grade I Listed Medieval Barn is well worth a visit.

Back in the centre of the village, the 12th century parish church of St John the Baptist boasts a 4,000 year old Yew tree, as old as Stonehenge itself.

Visit also the spectacular Old Wardour Castle, a fine example of a 14th century castle. It's 10 minutes' drive, or enjoy the walk via 5 miles of ancient footpaths and bridleways.

Tisbury is such a friendly place. People who visit rarely want to leave, so plan a visit to this most delightful corner of SW Wiltshire very soon.

WARMINSTER

Warminster is a busy, friendly market town, first settled in Saxon times. It has many fine Georgian buildings, and hosts a wide variety of independent shops, with numerous cafés, restaurants and historic inns. Market day is Friday.

There are excellent road, rail and bus links, and ample car parking. In the heart of town the Lake Pleasure Grounds provide tennis courts, a boating lake, children's playground and skateboard park.

The Smallbrook Meadows Nature Reserve next to it is a lovely mosaic of water meadows between the Were and Wylve rivers. A short walk from the centre of town leads to the 30-mile circular walk around Salisbury Plain's Live Firing Range.

Longleat, Center Parcs, Stourhead, Bath and Salisbury are all within easy reach. The beautiful surrounding villages and countryside provide numerous opportunities for peaceful walking, cycling and riding. Come and enjoy.
