Salisbury
it's about time

Quintessentially English,
Salisbury is the perfect fusion
of ancient and modern.

The picturesque heart of the city is home to all your favourite stores, as well as independent retailers offering interesting and unusual items you won't find on every high street, and on Tuesdays and Saturdays (except the third Tuesday in October) the historic Charter Market comes to town. Other markets take place throughout the year, and between 23 November and 17 December (dates tbc) you can join the festivities at Salisbury's delightful Christmas Market.

Just one of many exciting events to choose from in 2017, the world-renowned Ageas Salisbury International Arts Festival runs from 26 May-10 June and this year looks west to the province of Quebec, the heartland of French-speaking Canada. Popular arts venues include Salisbury Playhouse, Salisbury Arts Centre and City Hall Salisbury, while eating out is a pleasure thanks to an enticing range of tea and coffee shops, pubs, bars and restaurants. With so much to do throughout the day and on into the early hours of the morning, Salisbury has been awarded Purple Flag status – the 'gold standard' for a great night out.

Salisbury Cathedral is home to Britain's tallest spire (404 feet/123 metres) and the world's oldest working clock. An exhibition within the Chapter House contains the finest of four original 1215 Magna Carta manuscripts. For an unforgettable experience, book a Tower Tour and venture up narrow, winding staircases to the foot of the spire for outstanding panoramic views.

The Cathedral Close is an oasis of calm. As well as the Cathedral itself, other attractions hidden behind these massive walls include the National Trust's
