A year of celebrations is planned to mark the audacious vision required to pull off this incredible feat. Highlights include an immersive light and sound show Sarum Lights from 18-22 February, a major art exhibition Spirit and Endeavour from 1 April-25 October, and Confluence: a Festival of Flowers from 15-20 September. Situated at the gateway to the south west and with Stonehenge only 8 miles away, there has never been a better time to visit this jewel in the Wiltshire countryside. ENGLAND'S HISTORIC CITIES

Salisbury: Layer Upon Layer of History

> High Street

> Magna Carta Exhibition

> Salisbury International Arts Festival

> Salisbury Racecourse

> Looking towards the Cathedral Close

Ancient... modern... timeless... the city of Salisbury combines ageless beauty with captivating history.

Home to the tallest spire in Britain and the best-preserved original 1215 Magna Carta, Salisbury Cathedral has been described as 'the single most beautiful structure in England'. In 2020 Salisbury Cathedral and the city commemorate the 800th anniversary of the Cathedral's relocation from Old Sarum to its present site. A year of celebrations marking the spirit, endeavour and vision required to pull off this remarkable feat will include an immersive light and sound show from 18-22 February, a major art exhibition from 1 April-25 October, and a festival of flowers from 15-20 September. Visit salburycathedral.org.uk to find out more.

Gathered within the Cathedral Close are further fascinating attractions. Discover finds from Stonehenge at The Salisbury Museum. Relive scenes from Sense and Sensibility at the National Trust's Mompesson House. Browse the diverse collections at Arundells, former home of Sir Edward Heath. Or delve into the history of two local regiments at The Rifles Berkshire & Wiltshire Museum. A short stroll along the High Street takes you to the Parish Church of St Thomas with its magnificent Doom Painting. On the outskirts of the city you'll find Old Sarum, the original site of Salisbury, and River Bourne Community Farm. While Boscombe Down Aviation Collection, Salisbury Racecourse and, of course, Stonehenge are right on the doorstep too.

The historic heart of Salisbury has retained its medieval 'chequered' layout - keep an eye out for original street names as you stroll around. When it's time for a break you'll find tempting tearooms and coffee shops, family-friendly brasseries and romantic tables-for-two, cosy city pubs and historic inns with views of the river. One of the quirkiest hostleries is the 14th century Haunch of Venison. Order a pint at the unusual pewter-topped bar, then take a peek at the former bread oven containing (so the story goes) the mummified hand of an ill-fated card sharp.

Shoppers can head for their favourite high street stores. Or seek out quirky, independent shops offering products designed and crafted locally. For hustle and bustle you can't beat a good market, and Salisbury's Charter Market has been drawing people to the city - every century, every year, every week, every Tuesday* and Saturday - for almost 800 years. Throughout the year the Market Place and Guildhall Square are also home to artisan, teenage and vintage markets. Farmers' and Foodie Friday markets. Continental markets and an ever-popular Christmas Fayre.

Salisbury's engaging cultural scene reflects a deep-rooted creativity and imagination. Under the banner of Wiltshire Creative, the Playhouse, Arts Centre and International Arts Festival embrace the contemporary, the traditional and the - occasionally - downright eccentric. Resulting in a vibrant blend of music, dance, theatre, comedy and more. Add to this an eclectic range of events on offer at City Hall and you can enjoy top notch entertainment, all year round. With so much going on throughout the day and into the early hours, Salisbury has been awarded Purple Flag status - the 'gold standard' for a great night out.

Just 90 minutes by train from London Waterloo, Salisbury makes an unbeatable destination for day trips and short breaks alike. It is also an excellent base for discovering all that Wiltshire has to offer. For a comprehensive guide to the city and surrounding areas go to visitsalisbury.co.uk or download the England Originals app which features Salisbury.

From stone circles to crop circles, history in Wiltshire has been thousands of years in the making. Numerous civilisations have called it home. Why not visit in 2020 to write your own chapter in our never-ending story?

People have been drawn to Wiltshire since ancient times. Reaching back to the Stone Age and beyond, the county’s archaeological inheritance is second to none. Our prehistoric henge monuments at Stonehenge and Avebury are renowned throughout the world. But they are only part of the story. Later inhabitants have left their mark as well, bequeathing tangible links with the past.

Built for defence and characterised by enormous ditches and banks, Iron Age hillforts are a recurring feature of the Wiltshire landscape. Visit at sunrise or sunset. Pause for a while on the ramparts. See how the atmosphere alters with the light and reflect on the generations who have stood in this very spot before you – these are the ideal places to connect with our ancestors. The best known can be found at Old Sarum on the northern outskirts of Salisbury. This massive earthwork began life as a Neolithic community some 5,000 years ago. Subsequently inhabited by Romans, Saxons and Normans, it developed into a flourishing medieval settlement, eventually becoming the original city of Salisbury. Today you can stroll among the ruins of a royal palace, a castle, and no less than two earlier cathedrals.

Other Wiltshire hillforts include Barbury Castle on the North Wessex Downs. Battlesbury Camp, one of the best preserved in the county. Bratton Castle, home to an even older Neolithic long barrow. Cley Hill, Britain’s UFO capital, with hundreds of sightings since the mid-1960s. Oldbury Castle, overlooking the Cherhill White Horse. For further inspiration, view our ancient hillforts film: visitwiltshire.co.uk/videos Elsewhere, the legacy of the past continues. Ludgershall Castle was built as a fortress in the late 11th century – once a royal hunting lodge, it is now a glorious ruin. The beautiful 12th century Abbey at Malmesbury contains the tomb of Athelstan, first king of all England, who made this historic town his capital. Old Wardour Castle, dating from the 14th century, was badly damaged in the English Civil War, but today provides a picturesque lakeside setting for picnics.

To unearth the secrets of Wiltshire’s journey through the ages, team up with an expert tour guide. Or explore the galleries at our award-winning museums, bursting with treasured exhibits of outstanding national importance. The Salisbury Museum is home to one of Europe’s most extensive collections of Stonehenge and prehistoric artefacts. Here you can discover the Monkton Deverill Gold Torc, recovered from a Bronze Age burial mound, and the grave of the ‘Amesbury Archer’, the richest Beaker burial in Britain. Galleries at Wiltshire Museum in Devizes cover 500,000 years of Wiltshire’s history, including the Neolithic, Bronze Age and Iron Age eras, as well as Roman, Saxon and Medieval times. The displays of ‘Gold from the Time of Stonehenge’ feature remarkable finds excavated from the prehistoric landscapes of the World Heritage Site.

For further evidence of Roman occupation in Wessex you need look no further than the Roman Baths in Bath, home to the Sacred Spring, the Roman Temple, the Roman Bath House and finds from Roman Bath. Amesbury, on the southern edge of Salisbury Plain, is the nearest town to Stonehenge and close to the ancient monuments of Woodhenge, the Cursus, the Avenue and Durrington Walls. Recent excavations suggest that the town may date back more than 10,000 years.

> Westonbirt, The National Arboretum

Set against the drama and majesty of the surrounding landscape, Wiltshire’s great estates combine magnificent residences with equally outstanding grounds. From acres of landscaped parkland, to intimate formal and informal gardens.

Grand country properties don’t come much finer than those to be found in Wiltshire. Among them are Longleat House, a splendid example of high Elizabethan architecture. Impressive 18th century Bowood, with interiors designed by Robert Adam. Wilton House, home to the Earls of Pembroke for over 400 years. As you might expect, legendary horticultural genius Lancelot ‘Capability’ Brown was hard at work in 18th century Wiltshire. The breathtaking pastoral settings which complement these properties today were greatly influenced by his brilliance as a landscape architect. Even the grounds surrounding Lacock Abbey – founded in the 13th century for monastic purposes, before later becoming a family home – are said to have benefited from his attention.

But he was not the only green-fingered enthusiast to have left his mark in Wiltshire. The stunning National Trust garden at Stourhead was designed in the 18th century by gentleman gardener Henry ‘the Magnificent’. Described as a living work of art, reflections of classical temples and grottoes shimmer in the waters of a spectacular lake, surrounded by rare and exotic trees. The garden is open all year, and from March to October (as well as in the run up to Christmas) you can also visit the Palladian mansion of Stourhead House. Lydiard House, at the opposite end of the county, is another Palladian jewel, renowned for its elegant state rooms, original family furnishings and Elizabethan portraits. It is surrounded by 260 acres of parkland, with a lake and 18th century walled garden.

Designers of note have also left their mark on smaller homes of the well-to-do. Thanks to the vision of General Pitt Rivers, Larmer Tree is an extraordinary example of Victorian extravagance, perfectly set amid the rolling downland of Cranborne Chase. An Arts and Crafts garden surrounds 15th century Great Chalfield Manor near Melksham, familiar to many as a TV location from Wolf Hall and Poldark. Iford Manor Gardens, featuring romantic Italianate terraces cut into the hillside, evokes an Edwardian version of Tuscany. At Avebury Manor, some of the rooms and part of the garden have been variously redesigned to reflect Tudor, Queen Anne, Georgian, Victorian and 20th century styles. While Malmesbury’s Abbey House Gardens, beside the 12th century Abbey Church, have been restored in recent years by the Pollard family (better known as ‘The Naked Gardeners’).

The walled gardens at three properties in Salisbury Cathedral Close provide peace and tranquillity in the midst of the city. Within this timeless setting are the National Trust’s Mompesson House, a charming Queen Anne mansion; Arundells, home of former Prime Minister Sir Edward Heath; and a former Bishops’ storehouse, known as ‘The Wardrobe’, which houses The Rifles Berkshire & Wiltshire Museum. The gardens at the latter two properties run down to the river, with views of the soaring cathedral spire.

Three equally memorable properties lie just across the county border in Gloucestershire. As well as being breathtakingly beautiful, the 600 acres at Westonbirt Arboretum are a record-breaker, with one of the world’s finest collections of temperate trees and shrubs. 15th century Chavenage House, with its golden stone walls and lichen grey rooves, has remained almost unchanged for 400 years, making it the perfect vision of a Cotswold manor. Although currently closed for renovation works, the Grade I listed house and enchanting riverside gardens at Kelmscott Manor were the Cotswold retreat of William Morris: poet, designer, craftsman, socialist and founding father of the Arts and Crafts movement.

The source of many Wiltshire towns' modern-day prosperity lies in the production of woollen broadcloth in centuries past. Apart from Wilton Carpets – which has been trading on the same site in the former capital of Wessex for more than 300 years – the textile industry is long gone. But outstanding examples of industrial architecture remain to provide tangible links with the past.

Back in its textile manufacturing heyday, Bradford on Avon was home to more than 30 cloth factories. Today, the towering walls of Abbey Mill still flank the river, while the cottages once inhabited by spinners and weavers can be seen clinging to the hillside above. In Trowbridge the history of weaving dates back over 1,000 years. The result is an important architectural legacy ranging from the late-16th to the mid-19th century. Trowbridge Museum, reopening in August 2020 following extensive renovation and expansion, has a fascinating collection relating to West Country woollen cloth production, including interactive exhibits, sensory experiences and working looms.

For much of its 87-mile course, the beautifully restored Kennet & Avon Canal runs through Wiltshire. During the Industrial Revolution it was a key means of transport for goods and materials. Today it makes a peaceful and unhurried way to enjoy the county's timeless scenery. Colourful narrowboats are the traditional way to travel. But you can also walk or cycle along the towpath. Try your hand at stand-up paddleboarding. Or take to the water in a canoe.

In the course of your journey along and around the canal you will come across outstanding examples of industrial archaeology. Pay a visit to Crofton Beam Engines, just outside Marlborough – 200 years old, yet still capable of performing their original job. Nearby Wilton Windmill, the only working windmill in Wessex, where you can buy a bag of Wiltshire flour to take home. Or the flight of 29 locks at Caen Hill on the edge of Devizes – an astonishing feat of engineering. For further inspiration, view our Kennet & Avon Canal film here: visitwiltshire.co.uk/videos

In 1840 Isambard Kingdom Brunel chose to site the factory for his Great Western Railway in Swindon. Today, the Grade II listed buildings of the former railway works make a fitting home for STEAM Museum. Here you can step back in time, try out the interactive exhibits, and discover the story of this iconic line. For the chance to actually ride aboard a vintage steam train, head for Swindon & Cricklade Railway.

Wiltshire's local museums offer further links with the past. Athelstan Museum in Malmesbury traces the history of lacemaking. Calne Heritage Centre tells the story of the town and its surrounding area. Chippenham Museum highlights aspects of trade and industry, including a working model of a flourmill. While displays at Royal Wootton Bassett Museum depict the town's social, rural, commercial and industrial history.

A more recent example of manufacturing in Wiltshire can be experienced at Hillbrush, in Mere, where they've been making cleaning equipment since 1922. Visit Hillbrush, their visitor centre, includes not only a gift shop, restaurant and coffee bar but also a brush museum – the only one in the UK!

Vehicles, aircraft and the armed forces

If you've always wanted to take the wheel of an iconic car, now is your chance, as Vintage Classics bring you the ultimate driving experience! Timeless models available to hire include the Audi Ur Quattro Turbo (as featured in the BBC's Ashes to Ashes), the Jaguar MKII (of Inspector Morse fame) and many other models from Triumph and Daimler to Austen and Alfa Romeo.

You can also enjoy the freedom of the road in a well-equipped campervan from Practical Car and Motorhome Hire – with a choice of 2-3 or 4-6 berth models, they're ideal for touring. Or take a nostalgic trip down memory lane at Atwell-Wilson Motor Museum in Calne, which showcases vehicles from yesteryear.

Most exhibits are cars from 1910 onwards. But you'll also find motorcycles, mopeds and bicycles; a reconstructed 1930s-style garage complete with vehicles; a model lorry collection; and a range of interesting motoring memorabilia.

Highlighting the ingenuity and endeavour of Britain's armed forces, from centuries past to the present day, several of our museums trace the history of a particular corps or regiment. Within the walls of Salisbury's Cathedral Close, The Rifles Berkshire & Wiltshire Museum showcases the exploits of the infantry of these two local regiments, from 1748 until the present day. In addition to many fascinating photographs, the collection features documents, medals and items of uniform; swords, pistols and anti-tank weapons; pictures, flags and battlefield souvenirs... even a cannonball from the American War of Independence.

The Royal Signals Museum near Blandford Forum traces the history of the British Army's battlefield communications. From the introduction of telegraph in the Crimea, via espionage and satellites, to today's digital battlefields of cyberspace and electronic warfare. With interactive exhibits bringing history to life, you can send and receive messages in Morse code, set up a radio and satellite network, and drive a full-size truck through a virtual world.

REME Museum in Lyneham is the latest addition to the Wiltshire stable. Opened in 2017, its remit is to preserve the heritage of the Royal Electrical and Mechanical Engineers. In a collection exceeding 100,000 items you'll find over 100 military vehicles and more than 1,700 medals. Over 950 weapons and more than 2,000 items of uniform. Plus an extensive archive of letters, pamphlets and photographs, paintings, instruction manuals and vehicle specifications.

Located beside the busy airfield at Middle Wallop near Salisbury, the Army Flying Museum is the official Regimental Museum of the Army Air Corps and its predecessors. Here you can experience 100 years of British soldiers in the air, from the pioneering era of balloons and kites through to modern day helicopter operations. Exhibits housed in two large hangars include over 40 fixed wing and rotary aircraft.

You can also trace the fascinating story of flight at Boscombe Down Aviation Collection near Salisbury. A working museum, housed in a historic World War One hangar, it brings the history of test flight in the UK to life with over 100 exhibits, including 30 aircraft. Sit in a cockpit, dress up in a flight suit and helmet, imagine yourself as a fighter pilot, and watch ongoing restoration on real aircraft.

How come? Because Longleat, with its outstanding Elizabethan house, 'Capability' Brown parkland, enormous hedge maze and more, was also the first Safari Park outside of Africa. Keep an eye out for adorable Amur tiger cubs on the Safari Drive-through. Say g'day to England's only koalas in their purpose-built, walk-through habitat. Check out the Jungle Cruise. Observe the pack in Wolf Wood. Hand feed sea lion and giraffe. And don't miss Longleat's astonishing range of events, including the Food & Music Festival, Sky Safari, Festival of Light and more.

You can imagine yourself on safari at Cotswold Wildlife Park, too, where there's a real sense of being in the wild. Look out for zebra, giraffe and rhino. Red pandas, lemurs and sloths. Giant tortoises, slender tailed meercats and pygmy marmosets. Then feed the penguins, take a trip on the narrow-gauge railway, and navigate jungle bridges in the Skymaze. Set in over 160 acres of beautiful grounds, the Park has an amazingly diverse collection of species, many of which are endangered. Dedicated and caring keepers are passionate about the animals in their care, and keen to share their knowledge with visitors.

If big game spotting is a bit overwhelming, young children may feel more at home in one of our smaller animal parks. Here there are rabbits to handle, lambs to stroke and tractor and trailer rides to enjoy. In the event that anyone has energy to spare, exciting indoor and outdoor play areas provide the perfect place to let off steam. Many of these activities are common to all our animal parks, but each has unique features too.

At Cholderton Rare Breeds Farm Park the peak time pig races are a sure-fire hit. At Roves Farm would-be explorers can sharpen up their survival skills with den building and outdoor adventure play. On Tractor Ted's Little Farm at Bowood budding mechanics can tackle the mini tractor track and master mechanical diggers. For the opportunity to experience a working farm and learn about rural life, look no further than River Bourne Community Farm. Here you can meet and hand feed animals such as pigs, sheep, alpacas, donkeys, goats and Highland cattle, plus ducks, turkeys, poultry, chicks, guinea pigs and rabbits. In addition to 5 acres of farmyard there are 53 acres of water-meadow to explore and nature trails to follow.

For a taste of the tropics, visit Studley Grange Garden and Leisure Park to walk among some of the world's most beautiful butterflies as they fly freely against a backdrop of tropical plants and fish-filled ponds. Head for the zoo area to meet meerkats Thelma, Louise and JD. Say hello to otters Einstein, Darwin and Buzz. Introduce yourself to Rigby the Raccoon. Then brave creepy crawlies in the reptile house, greet geese and goats in the Farm Park, and round it all off with a session in Bonkers Soft Play.

Comprising 150 lakes set over 40 square miles, lovely off-road cycle routes, miles of peaceful footpaths and wonderful flora and fauna, Cotswold Water Park is a great place to discover the wonders of our natural world. As is Wiltshire Wildlife Trust's nature reserve at Langford Lakes, which attracts a whole host of wild birds throughout the year. Depending on the season you can watch as grebes shake their heads in dramatic courtship displays. Look out for Canada geese and tufted duck. Spy the turquoise flash of a kingfisher. Or glimpse the spectacular osprey. Even the elusive and endangered bittern has been spotted creeping silently through the reeds. With a packed timetable of activities the Hawk Conservancy Trust offers a full-on family adventure. Witness up to three world-class flying displays each day. Find out more about the birds at a special Experience session. Book a VIP Encounter. There are over 150 birds of prey on view here... and every visitor can meet one!

Welcome to the Great West Way: an exciting new touring route combining the world-renowned with the yet-to-be-discovered. Where timeless icons rub shoulders with everyday England.

At one end you have London, with its rich cultural heritage and famous royal sights. At the other, Bath and Bristol – close neighbours, yes, but with very different personalities. While elegant Bath is renowned for its classical Georgian architecture and romantic literary connections, Bristol is a riot of alternative art, music and dining experiences. In between lie lush green landscapes, characterful villages and relaxing riverside towns. But the Great West Way isn't simply about getting from A to B. The Great West Way is for those who relish the journey. The curious. For whom the colourful characters they encounter along the way are as fascinating as the places they visit.

There is no right or wrong place to start your Great West Way journey. No correct route to follow. No best mode of transport. Travel by road, rail or water. On two feet or two wheels. Stay in one place for a while or move on every day. Just be sure to say 'yes' to unforeseen adventures and unexpected diversions. Take the direct route and the Great West Way runs for 125 miles... add in all the tempting trails and off-the-beaten-track detours and there are 500 miles or more to explore. As you follow its twists and turns you'll encounter the very essence of England.

Along the Great West Way you'll find three breathtaking Areas of Outstanding Natural Beauty – the Chilterns, the Cotswolds and the North Wessex Downs – as well as the UNESCO World Heritage Sites of Stonehenge and Avebury, Kew Gardens, Blenheim Palace and Bath.

You can stand on the site of the sealing of Magna Carta at Runnymede. Step aboard the last Concorde ever made at Aerospace Bristol. Enjoy a wine tour and tasting at Alder Ridge Vineyard. Stroll through 15,000 extraordinary trees at Westonbirt, The National Arboretum. Or lose yourself in the hedge maze at Hampton Court Palace. Take a pleasure cruise along the Royal River Thames. Admire sumptuous Georgian gowns at the Fashion Museum. Follow in the footsteps of prehistoric man at Cheddar Gorge and Caves. Or unearth amazing archaeology at the Roman Baths. Enjoy Newbury's canalside pubs and restaurants. Discover Reading's Museum and Abbey Quarter. Trawl Hungerford's antique shops and fairs, then sample seasonal produce at Cobbs Farm Shop & Kitchen on the edge of town. Or visit a stunning National Trust property.

From the famous to the far out, the Great West Way offers an astonishing variety of English experiences. A combination not found in any other part of the country. If you're on a tight schedule, it makes for a wonderful day trip. But for those with more time to spare, a short break or longer adventure will allow you to immerse yourself more thoroughly in local life. Your choice of accommodation can be an integral part of the Great West Way experience, too. Quirky glamping sites, pretty country B&Bs, cool city hotels... even castles and stately homes. Offering a world of hidden delights, The Royal Crescent Hotel & Spa in Bath is a Georgian gem.

Based on one of the first Great Roads commissioned by kings, the Great West Way is easy to join and easy to follow. It passes by both Heathrow and Bristol airports. It's accessible for visitors travelling from the Channel ports or already based in London. It will take you to places you've always dreamed of visiting, and secret spots that even some locals have yet to discover.

Wiltshire on the Great West Way®

“You never quite know what awaits you around the corner”

The Great West Way is England undiluted. England concentrated. Around a quarter of it runs through the beautiful county of Wiltshire. Across rolling hillsides in the North Wessex Downs. Past white horse carvings that have watched over the Vale of Pewsey for generations. Along routes that brought drovers to market. Druids to Stonehenge. Pilgrims to Salisbury Cathedral.

The Great West Way is all about finding your own way. By all means tick off those celebrated icons you've always dreamed of seeing, but allow for spontaneity too. The joy of the Great West Way is that you are never more than a few minutes from a quirky attraction or an extraordinary experience. Just pick somewhere you like the sound of and see where the Great West Way leads you.

Much of the Great West Way's appeal lies in its enormous variety. Stroll around 'Capability' Brown parkland at Bowood House and Gardens. Channel your inner racing driver on a lap of Castle Combe Circuit. Admire elegant state rooms at Lydiard House. Step back in time at STEAM – Museum of the Great Western Railway. Or see how many incredible animals you can spot on a six-and-a-half-mile drive-through experience at Longleat, the first Safari Park outside of Africa.

If Stonehenge and Avebury feature on your wish list, try to visit at dawn or dusk to fully appreciate the magnetism that has drawn people to them over thousands of years. Take time, too, to discover the other monuments that make up this outstanding World Heritage Site. Gaze across fields at the enigmatic mound of Silbury Hill, perhaps. Or edge your way inside the Neolithic tomb at West Kennet Long Barrow (torches recommended).

The industrial revolution left a rich legacy in Wiltshire. Not least the Kennet & Avon Canal. Walk or cycle the towpath. Take to the water with a kayak or paddleboard. Relax aboard a traditional narrowboat. Back on dry land you can meet the mighty Shire horses and see sign writers at work on a tour of Wadworth Brewery in Devizes. Uncover fascinating industrial archaeology at Wilton Windmill and Crofton Beam Engines near Marlborough. Or visit McArthurGlen Designer Outlet Swindon, housed in the beautifully renovated Grade II listed buildings of Brunel's former railway works, and search for bargains in over 100 top name stores.

Many of Wiltshire's timeless towns and villages are within easy reach of the Great West Way. Marvel at Bradford on Avon's 14th century tithe barn. Visit the heritage quarter in Calne to learn of its colourful past. Seek out the wealth of historic buildings in Chippenham. Discover Corsham, familiar to many as Truro from BBC's Poldark. Unearth the rich heritage of Georgian houses in Devizes. Wander through the stunning National Trust village of Lacock. Explore hilltop Malmesbury, England's oldest borough. Stroll along the high street in the handsome former staging post of Marlborough. Enjoy entertainment and leisure opportunities in Swindon. Stumble across unique industrial architecture in Trowbridge. Or visit the medieval city of Salisbury with its magnificent Cathedral.

With beer gardens for summer and log fires in winter, an authentic English pub experience is hard to beat. So settle down at one of Wiltshire's many traditional inns. If your Great West Way adventure includes an overnight stay, you can enjoy home-from-home hospitality in a friendly B&B, character and charm at The Old Bell Hotel or some serious pampering at Whatley Manor Hotel and

Spa. Other options include the chance to live the rural dream on a farm stay, or climb aboard a traditional narrowboat and let the lapping waters soothe you to sleep.

Rail connections along the Great West Way are excellent, linking Wiltshire with London's Paddington and Waterloo stations at one end, Bristol and Bath at the other. Within 90 minutes, or less, of leaving the capital you can find yourself here, enjoying authentic English experiences.

Unforgettably Unique

1220 was a very special year in the chronicles of Wiltshire. The foundation stones of Salisbury Cathedral were laid, and construction began on what was to become a masterpiece of medieval engineering. In 2020 we mark the 800th anniversary of this historic milestone with a year of celebrations - see salisburycathedral.org.uk for details.

Salisbury Cathedral is a magnificent example of Early English Gothic architecture. Its glorious Chapter House is home to the finest of only four original Magna Carta manuscripts, dating from 1215. Other incomparable features include the tallest spire in Britain, Britain's largest cathedral close and cloisters, and the world's oldest working clock. For stunning panoramic views, take a Tower Tour up narrow spiral stairs to the foot of the spire, 225 feet (over 68 metres) above ground.

Superlatives abound at Stonehenge and Avebury too. Stonehenge, the world's most famous prehistoric monument, is the only hinged stone circle to feature lintels across some of its stones. Avebury, though less well known, is the largest megalithic stone circle in the world, and the only one to have a village built partly within it. Whilst their origins and meaning have been lost in the mists of time, together they have a magnetism that continues to draw people to them after thousands of years.

If you stand on Salisbury Plain at sunrise or sunset, it's easy to see why the ancient Britons believed Stonehenge was special. One of its many unique features is its orientation on the rising and setting sun, although why it was built in this way remains an enduring mystery. Stonehenge visitor centre brings its story to life through outstanding exhibitions showcasing items on loan from nearby museums, a superb 360° audio-visual stone circle experience, and replicas of Neolithic houses built from authentic materials. Understandably it's a popular place, so entry is by timed ticket and pre-booking is strongly recommended – you can do this easily at visitwiltshire.co.uk/shop

Arrive at Avebury on a misty autumnal morning, or in the depths of winter when a sprinkling of snow dusts the ground, and you'll understand the appeal this sacred place held for our ancestors. Here, no less than three stone circles and part of the village shelter within the massive outer bank and ditch. Stroll among the stones. Touch them, if you will. Try your hand at dowsing for ley lines. Then complete your Avebury experience with visits to the Alexander Keiller Museum and Avebury Manor and Garden.

Dotted across the wider landscape of the World Heritage Site are other monuments, some of them older than the stone circles themselves. Near Avebury you'll find Silbury Hill, the largest artificial mound in Europe; West Kennet Long Barrow, one of Britain's largest Stone Age burial sites; and the 'dolmen' burial chamber of The Devil's Den. Not far from Stonehenge are the Bronze Age burial mounds at King Barrow Ridge; the site of a Neolithic settlement and henge at Durrington Walls; and earthworks including The Cursus and The Avenue.

The Stonehenge Tour makes a convenient way to explore several of Wiltshire's ancient wonders. Picking up from Salisbury railway station and the city centre, it runs via Old Sarum to Stonehenge, before returning via Salisbury Cathedral.

Among Wiltshire's other iconic views are its White Horses, carved into the rolling chalk downs. Westbury, the oldest, dates from 1778 (although local records suggest it may have replaced an even earlier one carved in the late 1600s). Devizes, the most recent, was cut into Roundway Hill in 1999, to mark the new millennium. For further inspiration, view our white horse film here: visitwiltshire.co.uk/videos

Wiltshire's World Heritage Site and other timeless wonders are within easy reach of all accommodation in this guide. To experience the magic for yourself, an overnight visit is highly recommended. Go to visitwiltshire.co.uk/accommodation for a wide range of places to stay.

“In Wiltshire, imagination and creativity flourish”

> Salisbury Cathedral

> A Flight Before Christmas, Longleat

> Wyvern Theatre

> Enchanted Christmas, Westonbirt

> Salisbury Playhouse

> Salisbury Arts Centre

> Wiltshire Music Centre

> The Pound Arts Centre

Theatres, galleries, arts centres. Plays, recitals, exhibitions. Inspirational venues and outstanding entertainment, dedicated to making imaginations fly. With such beautiful and diverse countryside as our backdrop, Wiltshire is a canvas for creativity.

Wiltshire Music Centre, in Bradford on Avon, hosts over 120 events every year, from classical, jazz and folk music to children's and storytelling shows. Sean Rafferty of BBC Radio 3 once described its 300-seat concert hall as having 'the finest acoustic outside London'. No surprise, then, that musicians of international renown are regular performers here. In Corsham, The Pound arts centre is a thriving venue with a year-round programme of shows, exhibitions and films. Pound Arts creates live performances across Wiltshire under the banner of Rural Arts Touring, running both the family-focussed Blue Sky Festival in June and the decadent Magic and Mayhem Festival in November. At the heart of the community, Trowbridge Town Hall Arts offers professional performances and exhibitions by companies and artists from around the world. While Swindon's Wyvern Theatre and Arts Centre, with its impressive main auditorium seating over 600 people, offers a mixed programme of concerts, comedy, musicals, drama and dance, including a popular annual pantomime.

Under the banner of Wiltshire Creative, two Salisbury venues and a major event have joined forces in a pan-arts organisation, rooted in the city, yet drawing inspiration from across the county and beyond. Salisbury Playhouse is renowned for commissioning and producing new works as well as hosting touring productions. Salisbury Arts Centre is a vibrant hub of activity housed in a beautiful deconsecrated church. While Salisbury International

Arts Festival takes over the city for two fabulous weeks from the end of May. Together with City Hall, Salisbury's largest venue which programmes three seasons of live entertainment each year, they offer first-rate performances in music, theatre, dance, comedy, film and more.

At the Victoria Art Gallery, just across the county border in Bath, you'll find a stunning permanent collection from Turner and Gainsborough to the moderns, as well as an exciting programme of temporary exhibitions. Important art collections can be seen in many of Wiltshire's stately homes too. At Corsham Court, for example, housing furniture by Chippendale, mirrors by Adams and portraits by Sir Joshua Reynolds. Or Wilton House, where the magnificent Inigo Jones staterooms include the Double Cube Room, the finest surviving 17th century stateroom in England. Designed to display family portraits by van Dyck, it contains the greatest collection of his paintings still housed in its original setting.

Events including open-air theatre, historic re-enactments, firework displays and Christmas celebrations are regular occurrences at historic properties too. Including Arundells, Avebury and Bowood, Lacock, Longleat and Mompesson House, Old Sarum, Old Wardour Castle, Stourhead and Westonbirt Arboretum.

We're a creative lot in Wiltshire. Our arts scene is thriving, inventive and engaging. If you appreciate art in any of its forms, Wiltshire is the perfect place to take time out and immerse yourself in timeless pleasures.

What's in Store...

Whether you're looking for top notch designer brands or familiar high street names, independent outlets or chain store favourites, shopping malls, farm shops or markets, you'll find everything you could possibly want in Wiltshire!

Our award for the most extraordinary shopping location goes to... Avebury! Probably not the first place that comes to mind when planning a little retail therapy. Yet here, within the world's largest prehistoric stone circle, you'll find not one, but two charming businesses: The Henge Shop and Elements of Avebury.

Not far geographically, yet a million miles away in atmosphere, McArthurGlen Designer Outlet Swindon makes a great day out for all the family. Over 100 stores to choose from... a huge range of high street and designer labels... up to 60% off recommended retail prices... plus cafés, restaurants and children's activities. All housed in the tastefully converted Grade II listed buildings of Brunel's former Great Western Railway Works. This is where the past meets the present, so keep an eye out for clues to the building's fascinating history. Other retail opportunities in Swindon include the traditional stores of Old Town and shopping malls in the modern city centre.

All around Wiltshire, numerous small, family-run outlets continue to thrive. Offering a relaxed and unhurried shopping experience as they've been doing for generations. In Devizes, for example. Hilltop Malmesbury. Or Tisbury – which more than makes up for its lack of size with a unique selection of interesting, stand-alone shops. For stylish stores in a cosmopolitan setting, the quintessentially English towns of Marlborough and Bradford on Avon are popular choices. As is Corsham, where many of the Bath stone buildings on High Street are independent businesses, providing irresistible retail opportunities.

PA Oxley near Calne is a treasure trove of antique clocks and barometers. In Salisbury you'll find galleries, studios and workshops at Fisherton Mill, classic and contemporary menswear at Chas H Baker and fine lingerie at Annie's Just Jane. Head to Casa Fina for hand-picked home décor, accessories and gifts. Regent Tailoring for timeless design with British heritage at its core.

Or Roly's Fudge Pantry for the ultimate in indulgent treats. Wilton Shopping Village, a short drive away, offers a relaxing experience with shops, restaurants, a historic courtyard and the renowned Wilton Carpets, which has occupied this riverside setting in the ancient capital of Wessex for over 300 years.

As befits a county famous for its local produce there are farm shops aplenty – Allington Farm Shop near Chippenham, for example, and Neston Park Farm Shop near Melksham – and Wiltshire is also home to markets of every shape and size. Indoor, outdoor and farmers' markets... continental and Christmas markets... vintage, artisan and foodie markets... we've got them all. What better way to spend an hour or two than browsing the many stalls, where every imaginable item is on offer. Top quality fruit and vegetables. Meat, fish, cheese and eggs. Haberdashery, clothing, jewellery and more.

First prize for the longest running market goes to Trowbridge, Wiltshire's county town, where stallholders have been trading since the year 1200. These days, it's on a Wednesday. Hot on its heels, history-wise, is Salisbury's Charter Market, which has been coming to the city on Tuesdays and Saturdays (except the third Tuesday in October) for nigh on 800 years. Other bustling market towns include Amesbury (Wednesday), Bradford on Avon (Thursday), Calne (Friday), Chippenham (Friday and Saturday), Corsham (Tuesday), Devizes (Thursday), Highworth (Saturday), Marlborough (Wednesday and Saturday), Melksham (Tuesday), Pewsey (Tuesday), Royal Wootton Bassett (Wednesday), Swindon (Monday-Saturday), Warminster (Friday), Wilton (Thursday) and Wroughton (Friday). Taste, provenance, food miles... when it comes to local produce, Wiltshire's pedigree is second to none. Back in 18th century Calne, the Harris family invented the traditional technique of curing bacon and ham. In time, this became known as the 'Wiltshire Cure' and is now recognised countrywide.

Start the day by tucking into a hearty Wiltshire breakfast. As you might expect, bacon features widely on the menu. Home-made bread, jam and preserves are Wiltshire staples too. Depending on where you stay, you could even find yourself eating the very eggs you collected fresh from the hens that morning.

At some point in a busy day's sightseeing you'll almost certainly start to feel peckish again. Giving you the perfect excuse to take a break and savour the taste of Wiltshire. Mouth-watering cakes and pastries are widely available at coffee shops and tea rooms around the county. So linger over elevenses. Treat yourself to afternoon tea. Keep an eye out for ice cream, prepared on site using milk from the farm's own cows. Naturally, you'll want to sample some of our traditional local specialities. Malmesbury Pudding, maybe. Wiltshire Lardy Cake. Wiltshire Loaf. (That last one's a cheese, by the way, not a type of bread!) Made using recipes handed down the generations, they still taste just as good as ever today.

Wiltshire is fortunate to enjoy an abundance of friendly inns offering delicious food and drink at reasonable prices. Restaurants across the county embrace the concept of 'plot to plate', crafting timeless classics and new favourites with equal care and attention. If celebrations are the order of the day you could head for Rick Stein, Marlborough. Book a table at Howard's House near Salisbury. Try The George & Dragon at Rowde, Beechfield House near Melksham, The Bishopstrow Hotel & Spa near Warminster, or Woolley Grange near Bradford on Avon, all of which have been awarded two AA Dining Rosettes. If you really want to push the boat out, look no further than the Red Lion Freehouse at East Chisenbury, The Harrow at Little Bedwyn, and the hotel restaurant at Lucknam Park near Chippenham – all proud holders of coveted Michelin stars.

With such a wealth of fresh local produce right here on the doorstep, Wiltshire sets great store by its mouth-watering range of foodie events. Sample the beer festivals in Devizes (February and July), Salisbury (March), Chippenham (April), Blunsdon (May), Malmesbury (July) and Swindon (October). Or savour the food and drink festivals in Corsham (June), Longleat (July), Salisbury (August), Melksham (end August/early September), Bromham and Calne (September) and Devizes (late September/early October). Wander among an array of tempting stalls. Inhale the aromas of freshly ground coffee and herbs. Eat your fill from sizzling sausages, barbecues or a hog roast. Then wash it all down with one of our lip-smacking local ales. With names such as Honey Bee Nectar and Rosy Rain, they sound almost as good as they taste!

You can discover your own personal gin profile – and their range of signature cocktails – at Bombay Sapphire Distillery in Whitchurch. Or sample award-winning still and sparkling wines at a'Beckett's Vineyard near Devizes.

In Wiltshire, good food matters. Luckily, life here moves at a gentle pace. Giving you time to savour the culinary magic conjured up by our chefs, bakers and brewers. While away the hours over a long lunch, or dinner with family and friends. No hurry. It'll be ready in a Wiltshire minute.

A County for All Seasons

“Big skies and broad horizons”

What view did you wake up to this morning? Newborn lambs taking their first unsteady steps? Scarlet poppies nodding amid fields of golden corn? Blankets of mist floating low over meadows? Mighty standing stones sparkling with frost? In Wiltshire you can enjoy all these sights, and more...

Summer is traditionally a lovely time of year to visit Wiltshire. With luck, it brings long, lazy days filled with sunshine, perfect for outdoor pursuits. Try a spot of cycling or horse riding. Tour a stately home or a landscape garden. Pack a picnic and head for the hills. Every year, thousands gather to observe the Summer Solstice at Stonehenge or Avebury, watching transfixed as the sun rises above the horizon on the longest day, bathing the stones in the first light of dawn. Throughout June, July and August the festival season is in full swing, and warm evenings invite you to book tickets for open-air theatre or outdoor music events.

But the summer months are not the only time to enjoy a holiday or short break here. Once the harvest has been safely gathered, autumn is in the air. Across the landscape, ploughed furrows run in straight lines as far as the eye can see. Migrating birds gather on telegraph wires and conkers are ripe for collecting. As September slips into October and the nights draw in, berries adorn the hedgerows. Clumps of toadstools push up through the earth and there's a new chill in the mornings. Blue skies may still stretch overhead, but leaves now crunch underfoot and the Wiltshire landscape turns a dazzling mix of red and gold. To see autumnal colours in all their glory, head to Stourhead, Bowood and Longleat, the Savernake Forest or the New Forest National Park.

According to folklore, catch a falling leaf and it will bring you good luck... that's got to be worth a try!

The run up to Christmas can be a hectic time, but a short break in Wiltshire will lift your spirits and help you get into festive mood. To keep the cold at bay, cosy up with friends or family in a traditional Wiltshire pub. Sip mulled wine by an open fire. Tuck into hearty, rib-sticking dishes. Then go late night shopping in one of our charming market towns and solve all your present dilemmas at one fell swoop.

After you've welcomed in the New Year, where better to walk off any over indulgence than Wiltshire's breathtaking countryside. Almost half the county falls within an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty and even – or perhaps especially – when dusted with snow, it's the perfect place to blow those cobwebs away. So wrap up warm, put your best foot forward and stride out across the frozen landscape. For a cheering sight in the depths of winter, Lacock Abbey and Lydiard Park are renowned for their dramatic displays of snowdrops.

Eventually, winter gives way to spring. The days grow longer and there's less of a nip in the air. Drifts of golden daffodils help to raise the spirits. Verges are dotted with clusters of primrose and celandine. Hedgerows turn green as leaves unfurl, and hibernating hedgehogs wake. If you know where to look (and the answers are given in these pages) you can find ancient woodland carpeted with bluebells. Lowland pasture covered in rare Snakeshead fritillaries. Nature in all its glory.

Wiltshire gives you space and time. To enjoy nature's bounty. To appreciate the simpler things in life. It's the perfect place to celebrate the changing of the seasons and every time of year brings its own rewards. So why not plan your own escape to the country in 2020?

From beginners' courses on bread making to Michelin starred dining at home, there is plenty to choose from.

Further details of a wide range of other things to do around Wiltshire, as well as walking and cycling routes, can be found at visitwiltshire.co.uk/activities. Maps and routes for cyclists and walkers can be downloaded from connectingwiltshire.co.uk too. Or contact one of the Information Centres listed on page 70.

These days we're all so busy. 24/7 this. 5G that. Sometimes you need to escape, press pause and let time stand still. To take things at a gentler pace, try a narrowboat cruise along the Kennet & Avon Canal. With just three speeds – slow, very slow and stop – there's no need for speed cameras, although the more conventional kind could come in handy!

If you're tired of the everyday, it's time for Wiltshire. Easy to explore, yet off the beaten track, this is an enchanted place. Here, you feel close to the earth and the ever-changing big skies. As the landscape's mood alters with the seasons and light changes the texture of the hills, you feel connected not just to nature, but to time itself.

Wiltshire is rural England at its very best. Almost half the landscape lies within an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. In the Cotswolds, where dry stone walls, narrow winding lanes and honey-coloured villages meld seamlessly into rolling hills. In Cranborne Chase and the West Wiltshire Downs, which stretch in a giant undulating swathe across the south of the county. In the North Wessex Downs and the Vale of Pewsey, where lush meadows and more austere expanses of upland unite amid a nationally protected landscape. Crop circles are a much-debated phenomenon here. To ponder the meaning of these mysterious formations, head to the Crop Circle Exhibition and Information Centre in Honeystreet. There are acres of ancient woodland to be found, too, on the edge of the New Forest National Park and in the Savernake Forest. And, at the heart of it all, the vast, untouched expanse of Salisbury Plain. An untamed plateau, it is home to rare and endangered species which thrive in the sparsely populated landscape.

Whether you are walking, cycling or travelling by car, miles of ancient drove roads and quiet country lanes make exploring a pleasure. Look out for charming hamlets, nestling amid rolling, unspoiled countryside. Among them Castle Combe, arguably one of England's prettiest, and the stunning National Trust village of Lacock. Film-makers' favourites, both.

The 40 nature reserves managed by Wiltshire Wildlife Trust cover a variety of natural habitats. From chalk grassland and woodland to wetland and bog, they are havens for flora and fauna. North Meadow on the outskirts of Cricklade is renowned for its spectacular display of rare Snakeshead Fritillaries during April. West Woods near Marlborough and Grovely Wood near Wilton are awash with bluebells in May. Lower Moor Farm near Cricklade is a mosaic of lakes, brooks and ponds linked by boardwalks, ancient hedges, woodland and meadows. Langford Lakes between Salisbury and Warminster is the perfect spot for birdwatching enthusiasts.

Wiltshire is also blessed with outstanding chalk streams and rivers. Flowing south from Pewsey, the River Avon supports an abundant variety of wildlife, including the endangered water vole. The gin-clear waters of the Wylde, Nadder, Bourne and Ebble offer excellent trout fishing and delightful riverside walks. The River Kennet winds through the North Wessex Downs, skirting the prehistoric sites of Avebury and Silbury Hill. Even the young River Thames gets a look in, as it meanders through the north of the county, close to the Saxon town of Cricklade.

These days, it seems, you're always on the go. Someone's always on your case. When you need to relax, unwind and enjoy a little 'me' time, visit Wiltshire and step off the world for a while.

With comfortable two, three and four star options we have hotels to suit every pocket. Some at the centre of the action. Others peacefully rural. Several with AA Dining Rosettes. Wherever you choose to lay your head, you'll feel rested and restored. Ready for another day, out and about in Wiltshire.

At the upper end of the market our breathtaking country house hotels are the ultimate in indulgence. Excellent facilities and levels of comfort and service that are second to none. Some offer

Michelin star dining. Others a luxurious spa, on-site golf course or their own riding stables. Many are surrounded by acres of beautiful English parkland. Take time out and treat yourself. No expense spared.

What could be more timeless than the English B&B experience? Cosy rooms, thatched rooves, and a hearty English breakfast featuring local produce to start the day. Make time for each other at a perfect bed and breakfast, in a charming Wiltshire village.

When was the last time you all went away together? Reconnect with the family at one of our self-catering properties. A converted stable or barn, maybe, with inglenook fireplace and flagstone floors. Or a city centre property, with all amenities close at hand. Come and go as you please. Eat out or cater for yourselves. If your thing is to do your own thing, these homes from home offer the last word in flexibility.

In Wiltshire we know that little moments matter. A crackling open fire, a comfy chair, and a glass or two of your favourite tippie. Wiltshire's pubs and inns have been welcoming and reviving generations of weary travellers for centuries. Our restaurants with rooms, too, are the perfect places to enjoy a delicious evening meal with good company all around.

For many people, holiday heaven means waking up to the sounds of the countryside. With home-made bread, local honey, and eggs straight from the hen. If this describes your rustic dream, a Farm Stay property could be the perfect fit. Some are on working farms, others simply in farm locations. Chances are you'll be able to take your best friend along too, as many are happy to welcome dogs. Or even horses!

When only the ultimate countryside experience will do, nothing beats spending the night under a canopy of stars. Which is where our campsites come into their own. Just park your caravan, pitch your tent, or pull up in your motorhome and get in touch with your rural roots. If you hanker for something a little out of the ordinary, we have plenty of quirky alternative and glamping options too. Colourful narrowboats on the canal. Well-appointed log cabins and canvas lodges. Romantic eco pods and shepherd's huts. Simple pleasures, with creature comforts thrown in. All with the great outdoors on your doorstep.

AMESBURY

The Home of Stonehenge, Historic Amesbury is an interesting town sitting on the River Avon.

Recognized as the oldest continuous living settlement in the country, dating back over 8500 years BC, before Stonehenge.

Offering accommodation, local shops, restaurants and inns - the town is a great stopping point for travellers and visitors to Stonehenge and south Wiltshire. With plenty of parking, including coach spaces in the town centre.

In the summer of 2020 a new History Centre will open, with one of the largest Mesolithic collections and will tell an amazing story of how life was before and around Stonehenge.

The 10th century church of St Mary and St Melor houses a 15th century clock that is believed to have been built for the Benedictine Abbey. Also, crusader crosses, royal floor tiles and see the story of Queen Eleanor of Provence, who was given a royal funeral in Amesbury in 1291.
