Stonehenge and Avebury have a powerful magnetism that has drawn people to them down the centuries. Two megalithic stone circles, within one outstanding World Heritage Site. Steeped in history, they stand testament to the ages. Visit in 2020 to experience their magic for yourself.

“Origins and meaning lost in the mists of time”

The ancient Britons attached great significance to Stonehenge. Among its many unique features is its orientation on the rising and setting sun. Why it was built in this way remains a mystery to this day, but if you stand on Salisbury Plain at sunrise or sunset, it’s easy to understand why people from around the globe continue to pay homage to this magnificent site.

Arrive at Avebury as dawn breaks over the North Wessex Downs and you’ll instantly appreciate the appeal this sacred place held for our ancestors. A massive outer bank and ditch surround the world’s largest stone circle. Which, in turn, encloses two smaller stone circles and part of the village.

Within the wider landscape lie further ancient structures including West Kennet Long Barrow, one of Britain’s largest Stone Age burial sites, and the massive man-made mound of Silbury Hill. Look out for Wiltshire’s distinctive White Horses, too, carved into the rolling chalk downs. Of the original thirteen, eight can still be seen today, standing watch over the countryside.

Wiltshire has been a special place for a very long time. Nowhere else in England will you find such a concentration of fascinating iconic sites. For thousands of years travellers have been seduced by their grandeur and majesty, and still they inspire a sense of wonder in visitors today.

TIMELESS WONDERS

Wiltshire is rolling green downs, ancient woodlands and bustling market towns. Parish churches, grand historic houses and country inns. Timeless monuments and contemporary luxury. Local ales and picnics in the park. In short, the England you love in one county.

“In Wiltshire you can walk through time”

Wiltshire’s charming towns and villages offer numerous ways to connect with the past whilst enjoying the present. Stylish independent shops and colourful markets. Tempting pubs and restaurants. Fascinating history and heritage. Top class entertainment.

Wiltshire is particularly renowned for its ancient sites, but later civilisations made their mark as well, leaving an exceptional collection of castles, stately homes and manor houses. Set against the drama and majesty of the Wiltshire landscape their surroundings are equally impressive, from acres of breathtaking parkland to intimate formal and informal gardens.

In centuries past, Wiltshire owed its prosperity to railways, canals and the textile industry. As well as the legacy of this rich heritage, there are vineyards, breweries and distilleries to visit. Motor and horse racing to enjoy. And animal attractions to experience, including the first Safari Park outside of Africa.

Wiltshire’s museums are great places to unearth the secrets of this journey through time. As well as archaeology collections of outstanding national importance, you’ll find exhibits relating to army history, motor vehicles, aviation and more.

TIMELESS NATURE

Wiltshire is an enchanted place where you feel close to the earth and the ever-changing big skies. The landscape’s mood alters with the seasons, connecting you not just to nature, but to time itself. Sit on the downs at sunrise or sunset, see how the light changes the texture of the hills, and think of others admiring the same spectacle over thousands of years.

This is rural England at its very best. Almost half of Wiltshire’s breathtaking landscape lies within an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. From the lush meadows of the Vale of Pewsey to more austere expanses of upland, the North Wessex Downs are a nationally protected landscape. As are Cranborne Chase and the West Wiltshire Downs, stretching in a giant undulating swathe across the south of the county. Acres of woodland can be found on the borders of the New Forest National Park and in the Savernake Forest. While parts of north and west Wiltshire lie within the Cotswolds. At the heart of it all sits the vast, untouched expanse of Salisbury Plain, home to numerous rare and endangered species that thrive in this sparsely populated environment.

Wiltshire is an ideal year-round destination. Amid its unspoiled, rolling countryside, charming hamlets nestle. A wide variety of natural habitats provide havens for flora and fauna. With miles of ancient drove roads and quiet country lanes, exploring is a pleasure. While thousands of paths for walkers and cyclists make it perfect for outdoor pursuits.

AMESBURY

A small market town that has Stonehenge (2 miles) and Woodhenge (1.5 miles), all within its Parish. Historic Amesbury is an attractive town sitting on the River Avon, now known to be the oldest continuous living settlement in this country, dating back over 8500 years BC.

A new History Centre will open in the summer of 2020, housing one of Britain’s largest Mesolithic collections, it will tell an amazing story, along with much more about Amesbury’s History. Amesbury has hotels, bed and breakfasts, independent shops, restaurants and inns - the town is a great stopping point for travellers and visitors to Stonehenge and south Wiltshire.

Stonehenge is of course the closest attraction to Amesbury and the 2 mile walk across the historic landscape is both invigorating and interesting. Just to the north is Woodhenge - a neolithic site which was first recognised through aerial photographs taken in 1925, it’s an equally interesting site to visit.

Closer to the town is Lords Walk which offers the combination of a unique view of the River Avon, as well as a walk along the old Lime Tree Way, which historically lead to the Abbey.

A visit to the 10th century church of St Mary and St Mellor is a unique experience. House within a 15th century clock that is believed to have been built for the Benedictine Abbey.

‘The First Town on the Thames’. An ancient Saxon town on the edge of the Cotswolds, with over 100 listed buildings, an important site from the time of Alfred the Great. For people who enjoy nature, North Meadow is a Site of Special Scientific Interest, and in April the rare Snakeshead Fritillaries can be seen. Wiltshire Wildlife Trust Nature Reserves

Discover Wiltshire’s Story

Wiltshire Wildlife Trust has 40 nature reserves across the county, spanning woodlands, wildflower meadows, hedgerows, streams, rivers, chalk downland, valleys, bogs and wetlands. Wiltshire is home to some rare and beautiful flora and fauna: now’s the time to get out your boots and binoculars and go wild in the countryside.

Highlights Include:
- Lower Moor Wood, near Cricklade, is renowned for its stunning wildflower meadows and replica Iron-Age hut, and is also home to an innovative Care Farm offering nature-based therapy. Blackmore Copse, near Salisbury, is one of the most important woods in Wiltshire for wildlife, particularly butterflies, and is a Site of Special Scientific Interest (SSSI).
- Langford Lakes, near Wilton, is a rare open body of water in the south of the county; the veranda at the reserve’s new Kingfisher Café is a perfect spot for bird watchers hoping to spot a glimpse of wildfowl and maybe even an otter.
- Clouts Wood, near Wroughton, is another SSSI site and, as an ancient woodland, home to some wonderful and rare woodland flowers.
