Top places to see daffodils include, Stourhead, Westonbirt, and all round the beautiful countryside including Marlborough Downs, Wylde Valley in between Salisbury and Bath and Cranborne Chase and West Wiltshire Downs Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty.

Bluebells are one of the later signs of spring to arrive and these can be seen in West Woods near Marlborough, Lower Moor Farm, Bluebell Wood near Old Wardour Castle, Grovely Wood near Wilton. Also look out for snakeshead fritillaries at North Meadow near Cricklade.

If its baby animals you're after, Cholderton Rare Breeds Farm and Studley Grange all welcome visitors to see their new born animals which often include chicks, bunnies, lambs and piglets. For something more exotic take a trip on the wild side to Longleat to see baby monkeys

Salisbury is a city of ageless beauty and captivating history, where medieval magnificence meets contemporary culture.

At its heart is Salisbury Cathedral, a beacon which has attracted travellers for hundreds of years. Gathered around it is an inspiring city, alive with fascinating people, places and experiences. Salisbury's story reaches back through the centuries and the city is proud of this rich heritage. Yet it is no stranger to original thinking...

Salisbury Cathedral offers one superlative after another, from the tallest spire in Britain and the world's oldest working clock, to the finest original 1215 Magna Carta manuscript. In 2020 it celebrated the 800th anniversary of its foundation. Surrounding this medieval masterpiece is the largest cathedral close in Britain, an oasis of calm amid the buzz of the city. Other attractions within the Cathedral Close include The Salisbury Museum and The Rifles Berkshire & Wiltshire Museum.

Nearby is the Parish Church of St Thomas, with its magnificent Doom Painting. On the outskirts of the city you'll find both Old Sarum, the original site of Salisbury, and River Bourne Community Farm. Boscombe Down Aviation Collection, Salisbury Racecourse and Stonehenge are on the doorstep too.

Layer upon layer of fascinating history

In the historic heart of the city, you'll find an excellent range of unique, independent retailers as well as high stores and regular markets. Tempting tearooms and coffee shops abound, together with cosy pubs, riverside inns and friendly restaurants. Salisbury offers an exciting annual line-up of festivals and events and a first rate programme of music, dance, theatre, comedy and more. (Covid restrictions permitting)

Just 90 minutes by train from London Waterloo, Salisbury makes an unbeatable destination for day trips and short breaks alike. Salisbury has been awarded Confederation of Passenger Transport UK as a Coach Friendly City. It is also an excellent base for discovering all that Wiltshire has to offer. For a comprehensive guide to the city and surrounding areas go to visitsalisbury.co.uk or download the England Originals app which features Salisbury.

AMESBURY

A small market town that has Stonehenge (2 miles) and Woodhenge (1.5 miles), all within its Parish. Historic Amesbury is an attractive town sitting on the River Avon, now known to be the oldest continuous living settlement in this country, dating back over 8500 years BC.

Amesbury has ample parking, two coach spaces, public toilets, and its own weekly market. A new History Centre will open in the summer of 2021, housing one of Britain's largest Mesolithic collections, it will tell an amazing story, along with much more about Amesbury's History. Amesbury has hotels, bed and breakfasts, independent shops, restaurants and inns - the town is a great stopping point for travellers and visitors to Stonehenge and south Wiltshire. The town is also one of the most convenient places to stop on the A303, being some 75 miles from London and the home of Stonehenge.

The town offers many interesting walks both in the Stonehenge Landscape and close to the River Avon. Stonehenge is of course the closest attraction to Amesbury and the 2 mile walk across the historic landscape is both invigorating and interesting. Just to the north is Woodhenge - a neolithic site which was first recognised through aerial photographs taken in 1925, it is an equally interesting site to visit. Closer to the town is Lords Walk, which offers the combination of a unique view of the River Avon, as well as a walk along the old Lime Tree Way, which historically lead to the Abbey.

A visit to the 10th century church of St Mary and St Melor is a unique experience. Housed within is a 15th century clock that is believed to have been built for the Benedictine Abbey.

Come and discover Wiltshire's hidden treasure. History, heritage, arts and crafts, great places to eat and drink and lots of independent shops – plus Poldark was filmed here too.

Visit Corsham
www.corsham.gov.uk/visit

Just 8 miles from Bath on the A4, 4 miles from the M4 (J17), or 3 miles from Chippenham Station.

Visit Corsham

With its historic buildings, glorious countryside and, surprisingly, peacocks wandering the streets, Corsham is a hidden treasure. Corsham is a quintessentially English market town, on the edge of the Cotswolds, with a beautiful High Street lined with historic buildings, chief among which is Corsham Court with its extensive collection of paintings. If it's more contemporary art you're looking for then The Pound is Corsham's gallery and theatre. Alternatively, if retail therapy is more your thing, then the town's independent shops will keep you busy, as will the great places for food and drink. And you'll be walking in the footsteps of Ross Poldark – the BBC One drama was filmed here too. It's yet another surprise in a town full of them.

The Merchant's House

Set on the wide high street of the vibrant market town of Marlborough, which is bursting with history and character, is the house of Thomas Bayly, a prosperous silk merchant. It was rebuilt following the great fire of Marlborough in 1653. A fine timber and brick building was constructed, its interior panelled, with nationally acclaimed, unique wall paintings and a commanding oak staircase. Continuing conservation makes this a special visitor attraction.

The Red Lion Hotel

The Red Lion nestles in the heart of this ancient city, just a few steps from the vibrant Market Place. Europe's oldest purpose-built hotel, it housed the stone masons of the Cathedral in the 13th century. But don't be misled – we may be old, but we have a great modern twist, as seen in the design of our bedrooms. In the warmer months our stunning Mediterranean courtyard garden is a great place to relax with a drink. In winter, log fires blaze, warming guests who have come in from shopping at our twice weekly market and now sit enjoying what we believe to be one of the finest traditional English cream teas available anywhere.
