TIMELESS WONDERS

Wiltshire has been a special place for a very long time. Indeed, nowhere else in England will you find such a concentration of fascinating iconic sites. For thousands of years travellers have been seduced by their grandeur and majesty, and still they inspire a sense of wonder in visitors today.

"Somehow, time has more meaning in Wiltshire"

Stonehenge and Avebury have a powerful magnetism that has drawn people to them down the centuries. One outstanding World Heritage Site, embracing two megalithic stone circles. Shrouded in mystery, steeped in legend, they stand testament to the ages. No visit to Wiltshire would be complete without experiencing their magic for yourself.

The ancient Britons attached great significance to Stonehenge. Among its many unique features is its orientation on the rising and setting sun. Why it was built in this way is lost in the mists of time, but if you stand on Salisbury Plain at sunrise or sunset, it's easy to understand why people from around the globe continue to pay homage to this magnificent site.

Visit Avebury as dawn breaks over the North Wessex Downs and you'll appreciate the appeal this sacred place held for our ancestors. A massive outer bank and ditch. Surrounding the world's largest stone circle. Which, in turn, encloses two smaller stone circles and part of the village.

Within the wider landscape lie further ancient structures. West Kennet Long Barrow, one of Britain's largest Stone Age burial sites. The massive man-made mound of Silbury Hill. And many of Wiltshire's distinctive White Horses, carved into the rolling chalk downs. Originally thirteen in number, eight can still be seen today, standing watch over this ancient landscape.

TIMELESS PLACES

Wiltshire's timeless towns and villages offer numerous ways to connect with the past whilst enjoying the present. Stylish independent shops and colourful markets. Tempting pubs and restaurants. Fascinating history and heritage. Outstanding entertainment.

"Find new stories around every corner"

Whilst Wiltshire is particularly renowned for its ancient sites, later civilisations made their mark as well, leaving an outstanding collection of castles, stately homes and manor houses. Set against the drama and majesty of the Wiltshire landscape their surroundings are equally impressive, from acres of breathtaking parkland to intimate formal and informal gardens.

Wiltshire's museums are great places to unearth the secrets of this journey through time. As well as archaeology collections of outstanding national importance, you'll find exhibits relating to army history, motor vehicles, aviation and more.

Historically, Wiltshire owed its prosperity to railways, canals, and the textile industry.

As well as the legacy of this rich heritage, there are breweries and distilleries to visit. Motor and horse racing to enjoy. And animal attractions to experience, including Britain's first ever drive-through safari park.

Wiltshire is rolling green downs, ancient woodlands and bustling market towns. Parish churches, grand historic houses and country inns. Timeless monuments and contemporary luxury. Local ales and picnics in the park. In short, the England you love in one county.

TIMELESS PLEASURES

Today life is hectic. Too hectic. 24/7 this. 4G that. Sometimes you need to escape, press pause and let time stand still. Whether your ideal break is calming, comforting, refreshing, or bursting with high octane excitement, Wiltshire is the perfect antidote to overcrowded cities.

"Step off the world for a while"

Activities range from the white-knuckle-inducing to the utterly relaxing. Pursue the ultimate adrenaline rush on a tandem skydive. Set your pulse racing with a spin around Castle Combe Circuit. Or drift calmly over the landscape in a hot air balloon. Saddle up for a horseback safari. Race against the clock in an escape room challenge. Or spend your day getting wet and wild on the water. Relax in a luxurious spa. Play a round of golf. Or sign up for a cookery class.

In Wiltshire we pride ourselves on the quality of our local food and drink, so you'll find plenty to whet your appetite in bars, restaurants and coffee shops around the county. There are farm shops aplenty too, and our historic shopping streets are home to a wealth of independent retailers, as well as high street stores, colourful markets and a top notch designer outlet.

Wiltshire is home to imagination and creativity in abundance. First rate venues include a leading producing theatre and a music centre with 'the finest acoustic outside London'. Festivals and events feature everything from classical, jazz and world music to carnivals, fairs and folk festivals. While Wiltshire locations have featured in every type of production from swashbuckling adventures to Jane Austen classics, Dr Dolittle to Dr Who.

So pay us a visit and let Wiltshire put back what the rest of the week takes out. You'll find less racing against the clock and more timeless pleasures to enjoy.

TIMELESS NATURE

Wiltshire is an enchanted place where you feel close to the earth and the ever-changing big skies. The landscape's mood alters with the seasons, connecting you not just to nature, but to time itself. Sit on the downs at sunrise or sunset, see how the light changes the texture of the hills, and think of others admiring the same spectacle over thousands of years.

"Rural England at its very best"

Wiltshire is perfect at any time of year. Ancient woodland carpeted with bluebells. Shadows of hay bales lengthening in the setting sun. Blankets of mist floating low over meadows. Frost glistening on mighty standing stones. Truly, a county for all seasons.

Almost half of Wiltshire's breathtaking landscape lies within an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. From the lush meadows of the Vale of Pewsey to more austere expanses of upland, the North Wessex Downs are a nationally protected landscape. As are Cranborne Chase and the West Wiltshire Downs, stretching in a giant undulating swathe across the south of the county. Acres of woodland can be found on the borders of the New Forest National Park and in the Savernake Forest. While parts of north and west Wiltshire lie within the Cotswolds. At the heart of it all lies the vast, untouched expanse of Salisbury Plain, home to numerous rare and endangered species that thrive in this sparsely populated environment.

Amid the unspoiled, rolling countryside, charming hamlets nestle. A wide variety of natural habitats provide havens for flora and fauna. Miles of ancient drove roads and quiet country lanes make exploring a pleasure. And thousands of paths for walkers and cyclists make it perfect for outdoor pursuits.

Wiltshire is one of Britain's best kept secrets. Easy to explore, yet off the beaten track. If you're tired of the everyday, it's time for Wiltshire. To book your rural break go to

SALISBURY THE PERFECT HISTORIC CITY

The ideal fusion of ancient and modern, Salisbury is rooted in time and place. The historic heart of the city retains its medieval layout, with a mix of architectural styles and many of the original street names preserved. As well as your favourite high street stores, there are regular markets and an excellent range of independent retailers selling unique and interesting items.

“Where medieval magnificence meets contemporary culture”

Tempting tearooms and coffee shops abound, together with cosy pubs, riverside inns and friendly restaurants. In June, Salisbury is hosting Wiltshire National Armed Forces Weekend, a spectacular three-day event recognising and celebrating our armed forces. Other inspirational events include St George's Day (April), a Food and Drink Festival (September) and the delightful Christmas Market (November/December). While City Hall Salisbury and Wiltshire Creative – combining Salisbury Playhouse, Salisbury Arts Centre and Salisbury International Arts Festival – promise a fabulous pan-arts programme throughout 2019.

Salisbury Cathedral offers one superlative after another, including the tallest spire in Britain, the world's oldest working clock, and the finest of four original 1215 Magna Carta manuscripts. Within the Cathedral Close you'll find further attractions including The Salisbury Museum, Mompesson House, Arundells and The Rifles Berkshire & Wiltshire Museum. Nearby is the Parish Church of St Thomas, with its magnificent Doom Painting, and on the northern outskirts of the city lies Old Sarum, the original site of Salisbury. Boscombe Down Aviation Collection, Salisbury Racecourse and Stonehenge are also on the doorstep.

With London Waterloo only 90 minutes away by train, Salisbury makes an unbeatable destination for day trips and short breaks alike – just go to visitsalisbury.co.uk for a comprehensive guide to the city.

Great West Way[®]

Welcome to the Great West Way. A new 125-mile touring route combining the world-renowned with the yet-to-be-discovered. At one end is London with its famous royal sights and rich cultural heritage; at the other, Bath and Bristol. In between lie relaxing riverside towns, lush green landscapes, and characterful villages. But there's so much more to the Great West Way than simply getting from A to B. The Great West Way is for those who relish the journey.

“Discover an essential strand of England’s story”

There are many ways to experience the Great West Way. Travel by road, rail or water. On two feet or two wheels. Base yourself in one place for a while, or move on every day. Take the direct route and the Great West Way runs for 125 miles... add in all the tempting trails and off-the-beaten-track detours and there are 500 miles or more to explore. Along the Great West Way are three Areas of Outstanding Natural Beauty – the Chilterns, the Cotswolds and the North Wessex Downs – and the UNESCO World Heritage Sites of Stonehenge and Avebury, Kew Gardens and Bath.

You can stand on the site of the sealing of Magna Carta at Runnymede. Watch the Changing of the Guard at Windsor Castle. Or lose yourself in the hedge maze at Hampton Court Palace. Pootle along the Kennet & Avon Canal in your very own narrowboat. Seek out exclusive fashion and lifestyle stores at Newbury's Parkway Shopping. Or search for works by Banksy in Bristol. Soak in the UK's only natural hot springs at Thermae Bath Spa. Sample award-winning real ale at West Berkshire Brewery. Or go behind the scenes at Highclere Castle (the real-life Downton Abbey).

The Great West Way offers an extraordinary variety of English experiences. As you follow its twists and turns, along paths taken by generations of travellers, you'll encounter the very essence of England. If you're short of time it makes for a great day trip. But stay a little longer and you can immerse yourself in local life. Recognising that one size of accommodation doesn't fit all, we have quirky glamping sites, pretty country B&Bs, cool city hotels... even stately homes and castles.

The Great West Way is easy to join and easy to follow. It passes by both Heathrow and Bristol airports. It's accessible for visitors travelling from the Channel ports or already based in London. It will take you to places you've always dreamed of visiting, and secret spots that even some locals have yet to discover.

Go to GreatWestWay.co.uk and discover your way.

GREAT WEST WAY®

WILTSHIRE ON THE Great West Way®

Around a quarter of the Great West Way runs through Wiltshire. Along routes that brought druids to Stonehenge. Drovers to market. Pilgrims to Salisbury Cathedral. Across rolling hillsides in the North Wessex Downs Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, and past white horse carvings that have watched over the Vale of Pewsey for generations.

“From the iconic to the totally unexpected!”

As well as Stonehenge and Avebury, your wish list will surely include some of Wiltshire's timeless towns and villages. Corsham, familiar to many as Truro from BBC's Poldark. Hilltop Malmesbury, England's oldest borough. The handsome former staging post of Marlborough. Or the 'discovery' town of Calne. Honey-coloured Bradford on Avon. Devizes with its rich heritage of Georgian houses. Or Chippenham, home to a wealth of historic buildings. Trowbridge, renowned for its unique industrial architecture. Or Swindon with its entertainment and leisure opportunities.

Much of the Great West Way's appeal lies in its extraordinary variety. You can take a stroll around 'Capability' Brown parkland at Bowood House and Gardens. Meet mighty Shire horses and watch sign writers at work on a tour of Wadworth Brewery. Or see how many incredible animals you can spot on a six-and-a-half-mile drive-through experience at Longleat, the UK's original safari park. Pay a visit to McArthurGlen Designer Outlet Swindon, housed in the Grade II listed buildings of Brunel's former railway works. Or simply relax aboard a narrowboat on the Kennet & Avon Canal.

An authentic English pub experience is hard to beat. So settle down at one of Wiltshire's many traditional inns. If your Great West Way adventure includes an overnight stay, you'll find B&B, self-catering, farm stay, glamping and hotel options aplenty... and for some serious pampering, you can head to Whatley Manor Hotel and Spa.

Rail connections are excellent, linking Wiltshire with London's Paddington and Waterloo stations at one end, Bristol and Bath at the other. Within 90 minutes, or less, of leaving the capital you can find yourself here, enjoying authentic English experiences and creating memories to write home about.

'The First Town on the Thames'. An ancient Saxon town on the edge of the Cotswolds, with over 100 listed buildings, an important site from the time of Alfred the Great. From 979 to 1100 the town had its own mint and a few coins can be seen in the Cricklade Museum. Cricklade, granted a charter in 1155, has a Manorial Court with a High Bailiff, a Town Crier and other historical posts.

For people who enjoy nature, North Meadow is a Site of Special Scientific Interest, and in April the rare Snakehead Fritillaries can be seen. Blakehill Farm (originally a Second World War airfield) is now a nature reserve managed by Wiltshire Wildlife Trust, and of course the famous Thames Path meanders through the town.

The annual festival is held in June and a Christmas Lights event in December. A range of facilities on the historic High Street offer interest and a welcome to visitors.

Skydiving over Salisbury Plain is the experience of a lifetime and one you will never forget. Imagine an experience that puts your senses into overdrive. One that has your heart racing, the adrenaline pumping. And that leaves you so ecstatic you want to scream out loud. A tandem skydive is the ultimate adrenaline rush. When you jump out of a plane at 10-15,000 feet, you're putting your trust in a total stranger. Literally throwing yourself into the unknown. Freefalling at 125mph is an experience like nothing on earth. Beyond exhilarating, it defies description. The only way to understand it is to do it.

GoSkydive is a specialist tandem skydiving centre, fully regulated by and affiliated with the British Parachute Association. We specialise in customer focussed tandem skydiving days and over 40,000 people have jumped with us. Skydiving from an altitude of 10,000ft gives you approximately 25-30 seconds of freefall time. For a pulse-racing 60 seconds of freefall choose the 15,000ft skydive - it's the UK's highest!

Discover Warminster at Warminster Community Hub,
Central Car Park, Off Station Road, Warminster, BA12 9BT
T: 01985 218548 E: discover@warminstercommunityhub.co.uk

This busy, friendly market town was first settled in Saxon times. It has many fine Georgian buildings and a wide variety of independent shops, with numerous cafés, restaurants and historic inns. Market day is Friday.

There are excellent road, rail and bus links, and ample car parking. In the heart of town, Lake Pleasure Grounds provide tennis courts, a boating lake, children's playground and skateboard park. Smallbrook Meadows Nature Reserve next to it is a lovely mosaic of water meadows between the Were and Wylde rivers. A short stroll from the town centre leads to the 30-mile circular walk around Salisbury Plain's Live Firing Range. Longleat, Center Parcs, Stourhead, Bath and Salisbury are all within easy reach. The surrounding villages and countryside provide numerous opportunities for peaceful walking, cycling and riding in this Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty.
