TIMELESS WONDERS

One outstanding World Heritage Site, embracing two iconic stone circles. Shrouded in mystery, steeped in legend, they stand testament to the ages. No visit to Wiltshire would be complete without experiencing the magic of Stonehenge and Avebury.

The ancient Britons attached great significance to Stonehenge. Among its many unique features is its orientation on the rising and setting sun. Why it was built in this way nobody knows for sure, but if you stand on Salisbury Plain at sunrise or sunset it's easy to understand why, even today, people from around the globe make the pilgrimage here.

On a misty morning at Avebury you can appreciate the appeal this sacred place held for our ancestors. Here, a massive outer bank and ditch surround the world's largest stone circle. This, in turn, encloses two smaller stone circles and part of the village. The wider landscape is home to other ancient structures too, including West Kennet Long Barrow, one of Britain's largest Stone Age burial sites; the man-made mound of Silbury Hill, its origins lost in the mists of time; and many of Wiltshire's distinctive White Horses carved into the rolling chalk downs, eight of which can still be seen today.

Offering one superlative after another, Salisbury Cathedral is a magnificent example of Early English Gothic architecture. The awesome sight of its spire soaring a breathtaking 123 metres (404 feet) into the sky never fails to impress, and within the Cathedral's Chapter House you'll find an exhibition showcasing the finest of only four surviving original 1215 Magna Carta. For an unforgettable experience, a Tower Tour leads you up narrow, winding staircases to the foot of the spire, 225 feet above ground where you can enjoy panoramic views across Salisbury.

Wiltshire has been a special place for a very long time. The World Heritage Site of Stonehenge and Avebury has a magnetism that has drawn people to it for thousands of years. Make 2018 the year you visit and experience this ancient county for yourself.

TIMELESS PLACES

Rolling green downs, ancient woodlands and bustling market towns. Parish churches, grand historic houses and country inns. Timeless monuments and contemporary luxury. Local ales and picnics in the park. Wiltshire is the England you love in one county.

The medieval city of Salisbury is the perfect fusion of ancient and modern, and each of our historic market towns and villages has something unique to offer too. Stylish independent shops and colourful markets, for example. Tempting pubs and restaurants. Or great entertainment.

Our outstanding collection of stately homes and manor houses spans the centuries. These magnificent residences frame stories that bring the history of England to life. Making them the perfect places to connect with the past whilst enjoying the present. Set against the drama and majesty of the Wiltshire landscape they come complete with equally breathtaking surroundings, from acres of landscaped parkland to intimate formal and informal gardens.

Railways, canals and the production of woollen broadcloth were vital to Wiltshire's prosperity in centuries past and outstanding examples of our industrial heritage can still be experienced today. Our manufacturing legacy also includes Hillbrush, in Mere, where they've been making cleaning equipment since 1922 – their new visitor centre is home to the only brush museum in the UK!

Wiltshire has a proud history of links to the military too, and the recent opening of REME – museum of the Royal Electrical and Mechanical Engineers – has added an extra dimension.

Wiltshire's award-winning museums are the perfect places to unearth the secrets of our journey through time. Containing archaeology collections of outstanding national importance, their galleries include treasured exhibits discovered at Avebury and Stonehenge. Later civilisations have left their mark as well, bequeathing tangible connections with the past. From 14th century castles to Britain's first safari park.

Whether you're here for a day, a weekend or longer, Wiltshire is a truly unique destination – visit us and you'll find new stories around every corner!

CRICKLADE

'The First Town on the Thames'. An ancient Saxon town on the edge of the Cotswolds, with over 100 listed buildings, an important site from the time of Alfred the Great. From 979 to 1100 the town had its own mint and a few coins can be seen in the Cricklade Museum. Cricklade, granted a charter in 1155, has a Manorial Court with a High Bailiff, a Town Crier and other historical posts.

For people who enjoy nature, North Meadow is a Site of Special Scientific Interest, and in April the rare Snakehead Fritillaries can be seen. Blakehill Farm (originally a Second World War airfield) is now a nature reserve managed by Wiltshire Wildlife Trust, and of course the famous Thames Path meanders through the town.

The annual festivals are held in June and December and a range of facilities on the historic High Street offer interest and a welcome to visitors.

GO SKYDIVE

Skydiving over Salisbury Plain is the experience of a lifetime and one you will never forget. Imagine an experience that puts your senses into overdrive. One that has your heart racing, the adrenaline pumping. And that leaves you so ecstatic you want to scream out loud. A tandem skydive is the ultimate adrenaline rush. When you jump out of a plane at 10-15,000 feet, you're putting your trust in a total stranger. Literally throwing yourself into the unknown. Freefalling at 125mph is an experience like nothing on earth. Beyond exhilarating, it defies description. The only way to understand it is to do it.

GoSkydive is a specialist tandem skydiving centre, fully regulated by and affiliated with the British Parachute Association. We specialise in customer focussed tandem skydiving days and over 30,000 people have jumped with us. Skydiving from an altitude of 10,000ft gives you approximately 25-30 seconds of freefall time. For a pulse-racing 60 seconds of freefall choose the 15,000ft skydive – it's the UK's highest!

TIMELESS PLEASURES

In Wiltshire we have imagination and creativity in abundance. Our festivals and events feature everything from classical, jazz and world music to carnivals, fun days and fairs.

Top quality venues include the South West's leading producing theatre and a music centre with 'the finest acoustic outside London', plus arts centres, artists' studios and more. From swashbuckling adventures to Jane Austen classics, Dr Dolittle to Dr Who, Wiltshire has taken centre stage in a wide range of big screen and TV productions too. So keep an eye out for familiar Wiltshire locations in Tomb Raider, Downton Abbey, Poldark and more.

In Wiltshire we pride ourselves on the quality of our local food and drink, so you'll find plenty to whet your appetite in our bars, restaurants and coffee shops. Our historic shopping streets are home to a wealth of independent retailers, as well as high street stores, colourful markets and a top notch designer outlet.

A day at the races is another of life's pleasures. Each year Salisbury Racecourse holds sixteen flat race meetings for you to enjoy, while Barbury stages four thrilling steeplechasing events and a renowned international horse trials. Elsewhere around the county, courses of a different kind combine first rate facilities for the golfing enthusiast with stunning views of Wiltshire's breathtaking landscape.

You can set your pulse racing with skydiving or water skiing, hot air ballooning or banana boating.

Go for a spin around Castle Combe Circuit, or saddle up for a horseback safari. Enjoy a narrowboat cruise on the Kennet & Avon Canal. Try your hand at falconry and fishing, or team up with a local guide to hear tales of myth and legend. If the weather takes a turn for the worse, indoor pursuits include spas and cookery schools, go-karting, escape rooms and laser combat.

With less racing against the clock and more timeless pleasures to enjoy, Wiltshire is the perfect antidote to overcrowded cities. So pay us a visit and let Wiltshire put back what the rest of the week takes out.

MUSEUM OF ARMY FLYING

The Museum of Army Flying is based just outside Salisbury in the Hampshire countryside and tells the 100 year story of the British Army in the air. The Museum is open daily and houses over 35 fixed wing and rotary aircraft including the only complete collection of British Second World War gliders. A great day out for all the family, the Apache Café has excellent views across an active army airfield where visitors may see Apaches, Lynx and Gazelles taking off for training. The Café is also open daily and overlooks the aircraft themed play park. There is plenty of parking available and visitors are welcome to use the Café without purchasing museum admission.

The British Army Flying Memorial was opened in September 2017 and lists the names of 5,127 soldiers who have died in the service of British Army flying. The Memorial is open to the public during museum opening hours throughout the year.

TIMELESS NATURE

Wiltshire is one of Britain's best kept secrets.

Easy to explore, yet off the beaten track. Rural England at its very best.

Almost half the landscape lies within an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. With its big skies and broad horizons the vast, untouched expanse of Salisbury Plain lies at the heart of the county. Acres of ancient woodland can be found on the borders of the New Forest National Park and in the Savernake Forest, while parts of north and west Wiltshire lie within the Cotswolds. From the lush meadows of the Vale of Pewsey to more austere expanses of upland, the North Wessex Downs are a nationally protected landscape. As are Cranborne Chase and the West Wiltshire Downs, stretching in a giant undulating swathe across the south of the county.

Miles of ancient drove roads, quiet country lanes and over 8,200 paths for walkers and cyclists make exploring a pleasure. So pull on your walking boots or hire a bike and head out on an adventure. Travelling under your own steam gives you time to appreciate the beauty of Wiltshire's timeless landscape, as well as charming villages such as Lacock and Castle Combe.

Today life is hectic. Too hectic. 24/7 this, 4G that. Sometimes you just need to escape, press pause and let time stand still. Wiltshire is calming, comforting, refreshing; an enchanted place where you feel close to the earth and the ever-changing big skies.

Here, the landscape's mood alters with the seasons, connecting you not just to nature, but to time itself. Sit on the downs at sunrise or sunset, see how the light changes the texture of the hills, and think of others admiring the same spectacle over thousands of years.

Any time is Wiltshire time. Carpets of bluebells in springtime, stooks of hay at summer's end, autumn mist floating low over meadows, winter frost glistening on mighty standing stones.

If you're tired of the everyday, it's time for Wiltshire.
