

TIMELESS PLACES

Wiltshire is rolling green downs, ancient woodlands and bustling market towns. Parish churches, grand historic houses and country inns. Timeless monuments and contemporary luxury. Local ales and picnics in the park. In short, the England you love in one county.

"In Wiltshire you can walk through time"

Wiltshire's charming towns and villages offer numerous ways to connect with the past whilst enjoying the present. Stylish independent shops and colourful markets. Tempting pubs and restaurants. Fascinating history and heritage. Top class entertainment.

Wiltshire is particularly renowned for its ancient sites, but later civilisations made their mark as well, leaving an exceptional collection of castles, stately homes and manor houses. Set against the drama and majesty of the Wiltshire landscape their surroundings are equally impressive, from acres of breathtaking parkland to intimate formal and informal gardens.

In centuries past, Wiltshire owed its prosperity to railways, canals and the textile industry. As well as the legacy of this rich heritage, there are vineyards, breweries and distilleries to visit. Motor and horse racing to enjoy. And animal attractions to experience, including the first Safari Park outside of Africa.

Wiltshire's museums are great places to unearth the secrets of this journey through time. As well as archaeology collections of outstanding national importance, you'll find exhibits relating to army history, motor vehicles, aviation and more.

SALISBURY TRADITIONAL ORIGINAL

Salisbury is a city of ageless beauty and captivating history, where medieval magnificence meets contemporary culture.

At its heart is Salisbury Cathedral, a beacon which has attracted travellers for hundreds of years. Gathered around it is an inspiring city, alive with fascinating people, places and experiences. Salisbury's story reaches back through the centuries and the city is proud of this rich heritage. Yet it is no stranger to original thinking...

"Layer upon layer of fascinating history"

Salisbury Cathedral offers one superlative after another, from the tallest spire in Britain and the world's oldest working clock, to the finest original 1215 Magna Carta manuscript. In 2020 it celebrated the 800th anniversary of its foundation. Surrounding this medieval masterpiece is the largest cathedral close in Britain, an oasis of calm amid the buzz of the city. Other attractions within the Cathedral Close include The Salisbury Museum, Mompesson House, Arundells and The Rifles Berkshire & Wiltshire Museum. Nearby is the Parish Church of St Thomas, with its magnificent Doom Painting. On the outskirts of the city you'll find both Old Sarum, the original site of Salisbury, and River Bourne Community Farm, Boscombe Down Aviation Collection, Salisbury Racecourse and Stonehenge are on the doorstep too.

In the historic heart of the city, you'll find an excellent range of unique, independent retailers as well as high street stores and regular markets. Tempting tearooms and coffee shops abound, together with cosy pubs, riverside inns and friendly restaurants. Complementing the exciting year-round programme of festivals and events, City Hall Salisbury and Wiltshire Creative - comprising Salisbury Playhouse, Salisbury Arts Centre and Salisbury International Arts Festival - provide a fabulous annual programme of arts and entertainment.

Just 90 minutes by train from London Waterloo, Salisbury makes an unbeatable destination for day trips and short breaks alike. It is also an excellent base for discovering all that Wiltshire has to offer. For a comprehensive guide to the city and surrounding areas go to visitsalisbury.co.uk. Explore the city with the England Originals augmented reality app where visitors can access exclusive virtual experiences.

TIMELESS WONDERS

Stonehenge and Avebury have a powerful magnetism that has drawn people to them down the centuries. Two megalithic stone circles, within one outstanding World Heritage Site. Steeped in history, they stand testament to the ages. Visit this year to experience their magic for yourself.

The ancient Britons attached great significance to Stonehenge. Among its many unique features is its orientation on the rising and setting sun: Why it was built in this way remains a mystery to this day, but if you stand on Salisbury Plain at sunrise or sunset, it's easy to understand why people from around the globe continue to pay homage to this magnificent site.

Arrive at Avebury as dawn breaks over the North Wessex Downs and you'll instantly appreciate the appeal this sacred place held for our ancestors. A massive outer bank and ditch surround the world's largest stone circle. Which, in turn, encloses two smaller stone circles and part of the village.

Within the wider landscape lie further ancient structures including West Kennet Long Barrow, one of Britain's largest Stone Age burial sites, and the massive man-made mound of Silbury Hill. Look out for Wiltshire's distinctive White Horses, too, carved into the rolling chalk downs. Of the original thirteen, eight can still be seen today, standing watch over the countryside.

Wiltshire has been a special place for a very long time. Nowhere else in England will you find such a concentration of fascinating iconic sites. For thousands of years travellers have been seduced by their grandeur and majesty, and still they inspire a sense of wonder in visitors today.

AMESBURY

A small market town that has Stonehenge (2 miles) and Avebury (1.5 miles), all within its Parish. Historic Amesbury is an attractive town sitting on the River Avon, now known to be the oldest continuous living settlement in this country, dating back over 8500 years BC.

Stonehenge is of course the closest attraction to Amesbury and the 2 miles walk across the historic landscape is both invigorating and interesting. Just to the north is Woodchester – a medieval site which was first recognised through aerial photographs taken in 1925. It is an equally interesting site to visit.

Close to the town is Lords Walk which offers the combination of a unique view of the River Avon, as well as a walk along the old Lime Tree Way, which historically led to the Abbey.

A visit to the 10th century church of St Mary and St Mellor is a unique experience. Housed within its 15th century clock tower is believed to be a 'lost' bell, built for the Benedictine Abbey.

Cricklade

Map Ref E3

The First Town on the Thames. An ancient Saxon town on the edge of the Cotswolds, with over 100 listed buildings, an important site from the time of Alfred the Great. From 979 to 1100 the town had its own mint and a few coins can be seen in the Cricklade Museum. Cricklade, granted a charter in 1155, has a Manorial Court with a High Bailiff, a Town Clerk and other historical posts.

For people who enjoy nature, North Meadow is a 'National Nature Reserve' and to the west of the town is the 'Savern Valley' where the River Savern (originally a Second World War airfield) is now a nature reserve managed by Wiltshire Wildlife Trust, and of course the famous Thames Path meanders through the town.

A range of facilities on the historic High Street offer interest and a welcome to visitors.

A hidden gem, open to all.

A church has stood on this site for nearly eight hundred years and St Thomas's has always been the church of the City and Guilds of Salisbury.

Our recently restored 'Doom' paintings above the chancel arch is the largest and most complete example still surviving in the UK, painted between 1470 and 1500.

Visitors may also enjoy the striking modern altar table, built by local craftsman Matthew Burt, and created as part of a larger and ongoing project to restore, repair and reweave the wonderful church.

St Thomas's is part of the Inclusive Church initiative, which means that we are committed to ensuring that all are truly welcome, whatever their story. There are services held daily (except Saturdays) - do join if you can.

TIMELESS NATURE

Wiltshire is a county for all seasons. Ancient woodland carpeted with bluebells. Shadows of hay bales lengthening in the setting sun. Blankets of mist floating low over meadows. Frost glistening on mighty standing stones. If you're tired of the everyday, it's time for Wiltshire.

"Easy to explore, yet off the beaten track"

Wiltshire is an enchanted place where you feel close to the earth and the ever-changing big skies. The landscape's mood alters with the seasons, connecting you not just to nature, but to time itself. Sit on the downs at sunrise or sunset, see how the light changes the texture of the hills, and think of others admiring the same spectacle over thousands of years.

This is rural England at its very best. Almost half of Wiltshire's breathtaking landscape lies within an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. From the lush meadows of the Vale of Pewsey to more austere expanses of upland, the North Wessex Downs are a nationally protected landscape. As are Cranborne Chase and the Wiltshire Downs, stretching in a giant undulating swathe across the south of the county. Acres of woodland can be found on the borders of the New Forest National Park and in the Savernake Forest. While parts of north and west Wiltshire lie within the Cotswolds. At the heart of it all sits the vast, untouched expanse of Salisbury Plain, home to numerous rare and endangered species that thrive in this sparsely populated environment.

Wiltshire is an ideal year-round destination. Amid its unspoiled, rolling countryside, charming hamlets nestle. A wide variety of natural habitats provide havens for flora and fauna. With miles of ancient drove roads and quiet country lanes, exploring is a pleasure. While thousands of paths for walkers and cyclists make it perfect for outdoor pursuits.
