It's time for WILTSHIRE

Caen Hill Locks, Devizes

Today life is hectic. Too hectic. We're all so busy. 24/7 this, 4G that. Forever rushing around. Time poor. Sometimes you just need to escape, press pause and let time stand still.

Instead of living in the fast lane, take things at a gentler pace. Step off the world for a while. On a narrow boat trip along Wiltshire's Kennet & Avon Canal, for example, you'll find just three speeds: slow, very slow and stop. No need for speed cameras (although the more conventional kind could come in handy).

Wiltshire has been a special place for a very long time and the World Heritage Site of Stonehenge and Avebury stands testament to the ages. Wiltshire is also rolling green downs, ancient woodlands and bustling market towns. Parish churches, grand historic houses and country inns. Timeless monuments and contemporary luxury. Local ales and picnics in the park.

All this, yet only an hour and a half, or less, from London.

So come to Wiltshire and write your own chapter in our never-ending story: less racing against the clock and more timeless pleasures to enjoy.

STANDING

the test of time

Stonehenge

Somehow, time has more meaning in Wiltshire.

Stonehenge and Avebury have a magnetism that has drawn people to them for centuries, and celebrations marking the summer and winter solstices still take place here every year.

On a misty morning at Avebury you can understand the appeal this sacred place held for our ancestors. A massive outer bank and ditch surround the world's largest prehistoric stone circle, which in turn encloses two smaller stone circles and part of the village. Nearby you will find an 'avenue' of stones that once led to a further site known as The Sanctuary, and from the early Neolithic causewayed enclosure of Windmill Hill you can enjoy spectacular views across the surrounding landscape. The Alexander Keiller Museum and Avebury Manor and Gardens make fascinating additions to your visit here.

If you stand on Salisbury Plain at sunrise or sunset it's easy to see why the ancient Britons believed Stonehenge was special, and even today people from across the globe make the pilgrimage here to marvel at one of the most timeless and iconic wonders in the world. Its orientation on the rising and setting sun is one of its many unique features, but why it was built in this way remains a mystery. With outstanding exhibition galleries, a 360° audio-visual presentation and Neolithic houses built using authentic materials, Stonehenge visitor centre brings its story to life. Entry is by timed ticket, so pre-booking is strongly recommended – see www.english-heritage.org.uk/stonehenge for details. Understandably it's a popular place, so to enjoy a more peaceful experience try to visit in the early morning or late afternoon, or during the quieter months of the year. The Stonehenge Tour which picks up from Salisbury railway station and the city centre, then runs via Old Sarum to the stones themselves, before returning via Salisbury Cathedral is a convenient way to travel.

Overlooking rolling countryside near Avebury, West Kennet Long Barrow contains a series of shadowy chambers and is one of Britain's largest Stone Age burial sites; close by, its origins lost in the mists of time, Silbury Hill is the largest man-made mound in Europe; while at Marden Henge archaeologists are working to uncover the secrets of Wiltshire's third 'super henge'. The landscape around Stonehenge is equally rich, with Bronze Age burial mounds at Kingbarrow Ridge; the massive henge at Durrington Walls; The Cursus, a huge rectangular earthwork enclosure; and The Avenue, a bank-and-ditch earthwork over 2.5km long.

Sheltered by the massive stone walls of the surrounding Close, Salisbury Cathedral is a magnificent example of the early English Gothic architectural style. Its spire is the tallest in Britain, soaring a breathtaking 404 feet (123 metres) into the sky, and at the heart of an exhibition within the Cathedral's Chapter House you'll find the best preserved of four original 1215 Magna Carta manuscripts. For an unforgettable experience a Tower Tour takes you up narrow, winding staircases to the foot of the spire, 225 feet (over 68 metres) above ground, for panoramic views across the city.

Among Wiltshire's most iconic views are its White Horses carved into the rolling chalk downs. Of the original thirteen, eight can still be seen today. The oldest, at Westbury, dates from 1778 and is situated on a steep slope beneath the Iron Age hill fort of Bratton Camp. The most recent, at Devizes, dates from 1999 and was cut into Roundway Hill to mark the millennium.

These timeless wonders are within easy reach of all accommodation in this guide and an overnight stay is highly recommended. For a wide range of places to stay go to visitwiltshire.co.uk/accommodation

We’ve got entertainment down to a fine art in Wiltshire.

Often based on stories that have helped shape the history of England, our year-round programme of festivals and events showcases the county’s outstanding creativity and inventiveness. 2017 is set to be another bumper year, so escape the everyday and make the most of our timeless pleasures...

Among the stars of the show is the Ageas Salisbury International Arts Festival which takes place from 26 May-10 June, showcasing an array of theatre, music, dance, comedy, visual arts and a full literature programme. In 2017, in the final leg of its four-year journey around the cardinal points of the compass, the Festival will look west to the province of Quebec, the heartland of French-speaking Canada. From bustling cities to the icy floes of Hudson Bay, Quebec has used its particular culture to define its place in the vast continent-spanning country of which it is a key part.

Swindon Festival of Literature, from 1-13 May, celebrates all things well thought, well written and well said, with novelists, poets, politicians, travellers, scientists, storytellers, sportsmen, historians, comedians, artists and activists. From 27 May to 4 June the Wylde Valley Art Trail is a 9-day festival of visual art and crafts comprising open studios and workplaces, galleries and exhibitions, demonstrations, workshops and children’s activities. For two months from 4 June-7 August, Iford Arts Festival tops the bill with a mix of opera, jazz proms and cloister concerts from the idyllic surroundings of the Grade I Listed Peto Garden at Iford Manor.

From 26-29 May you can get into the swing of things at Chippenham Folk Festival which combines nationally acclaimed performers with dynamic young musicians, dancers and singers. In all there are more than 200 individual events and workshops in and around the Georgian town of Chippenham. The annual Edington Music Festival from 20-27 August features sacred choral works including plainchant, new commissions, organ recitals and some of the most complex and beautiful music ever written.

If you’re in carnival mood, head for Downton Cuckoo Fair on Saturday 29 April. This friendly event takes place on the picturesque village greens, with over 250 stalls, craft demonstrations, maypole and Morris dancing, music and more. The ancient market town of Malmesbury has been home to a carnival for over 90 years. These days Malmesbury Carnival & Festival has grown into a whole range of events throughout August, culminating in the carnival procession on 2 September. Devizes Festival Fortnight runs from 20 August-2 September, offering two whole weeks of colourful events, including Picnic in the Park, the Confetti Battle, Carnival Parade and Devizes International Street Festival.

From 2-4 June you can chill out at the Vintage Nostalgia Festival, a hidden gem held in the heart of the Wylde Valley offering live music, vintage trade stands and exhibits from the turn of the 20th century to the 1980s. Featuring a star-studded line-up of speakers, the Daily Mail Chalke Valley History Festival runs from 26 June-2 July. This unique event celebrates all things historical within an idyllic downland setting.

With its first events in April, and more taking place every month from then until September, Gurston Down Speed Hillclimb gets the sporting season off to a cracking start. From 6-9 July (dates tbc) Barbury Castle International Horse Trials sees the world’s top eventers compete over this renowned cross country course set in a natural amphitheatre formed by the beautiful Marlborough Downs. Popular with visitors of all ages Marlborough College Summer School runs from 9 July-5 August, offering a mix of art, cultural and sporting courses for adults, plus inspirational activities for children. While the Wilton Classic and Supercar Event will offer a fabulous weekend of automotive fun during June.

Now a well-established and successful event, Salisbury Christmas Market runs from 23 November-17 December (dates tbc) and offers tasteful, high quality gifts and festive goods, with a strong emphasis on products from Britain and Europe. A programme of festive music from local choirs and other groups completes the seasonal experience.

And, of course, it doesn’t stop there... there’s a huge and diverse range of other events around the county and throughout the year – to find out more just go to visitwiltshire.co.uk/whats-on

Spectacular Film and TV LOCATIONS

“An ever popular location for film and TV series”

Wiltshire has taken centre stage in a whole host of productions from Dr Dolittle to Dr Who. The following is just a small selection of big screen movies and TV costume dramas to be filmed around the county – for more information go to www.visitwiltshire.co.uk/film

Chocolat (2000) – River scenes from this film featuring Juliette Binoche and Johnny Depp were filmed at Fonthill Lake, near the charming village of Fonthill Bishop on the Fonthill Estate.

Cranford (2007) – The village of Lacock, with its cottages and inns dating back to the 15th century was the backdrop to this BBC production.

Downton Abbey (2015) – Filming for the sixth and final series of this hit TV series took place in the National Trust village of Lacock, much to the delight of visitors.

Far from the Madding Crowd (1967) – The town of Devizes featured as Casterbridge in this major hit starring Julie Christie, Peter Finch, Alan Bates and Terence Stamp. Scenes were shot in the Market Place, St John’s Church, the Corn Exchange and the Shambles Market.

Harry Potter & The Half Blood Prince (2009) / Harry Potter & The Chamber of Secrets (2002) – Sequences from both of these family favourites were filmed at Lacock Abbey, including scenes where its cloisters represented the corridors at Hogwarts.

Lark Rise to Candleford (2008–2011) – Locations near Corsham in north Wiltshire featured in this popular BBC costume drama.

Poldark (2015 and 2016) – The novels on which this series is based may have been set in Cornwall, but it was the charming Wiltshire market town of Corsham that locations scouts selected as the perfect match for 18th century Truro in the first series, while Great Chalfield Manor and Gardens featured in series two.

Pride & Prejudice (2005) – In this cinema version of the Jane Austen classic, starring Keira Knightley and Matthew Macfadyen, viewers will recognise not only Wilton House – which doubled as Pemberley, the family seat of Mr Darcy – but also the magnificent gardens at Stourhead, where Elizabeth Bennett initially rejects his proposal of marriage.

Sense & Sensibility (1995) – The National Trust’s Mompesson House in Salisbury’s Cathedral Close achieved celebrity status as the London home of Mrs Jennings, while the Double Cube Room at Wilton House was used for ballroom scenes in the film.

War Horse (2011) – Often referred to as ‘the prettiest village in England’, stunning Castle Combe played a major role in War Horse and featured in Stardust, The Wolf Man and Dr Dolittle.

The White Princess (filmed in 2016) – This 8-part TV series, adapted from a historical novel of the same name by Philippa Gregory, was filmed in Bradford on Avon.

Wolf Hall (2015) – In this BBC serialisation of Hilary Mantel’s novel, the exterior of Lacock Abbey represented Wolf Hall, the Seymour family seat, while the interiors of fellow National Trust property Great Chalfield Manor stood in for Austin Friars, home of Thomas Cromwell.

The Young Victoria (2009) – In Momentum Pictures’ film about the life of Queen Victoria, Wilton House doubled not only as Prince Albert’s home, Rosenau Castle, but also as Buckingham Palace.

Other big screen films featuring Wiltshire locations include The Wolfman (2010), The Other Boleyn Girl (2008) and Saving Private Ryan (1998).

TV series filmed at various places around the county include: Agatha Raisin (2015), Galavant series two (2015), Outlander series two (2015), The Hollow Crown series two (2014), And Then There Were None (2015) and The Royals series one (2013), plus Doctor Who (2010), The Victorian Farm (2009), Tess of the d’Urbervilles (2008) and various episodes of Time Team. Sherlock ‘The Abominable Bride’ was filmed at Longleat, which has also hosted various series of Animal Park, while Salisbury Cathedral was the inspiration behind TV mini-series Pillars of the Earth.

Let your imagination take FLIGHT

It's hardly surprising we're a creative lot in Wiltshire...

With such beautiful and diverse countryside as our backdrop there is much to fire the imagination... in fact you could say that the whole county is a canvas for creativity. If you appreciate art in any of its forms, you'll find plenty of inspiration in our many galleries, theatres, arts centres and stately homes.

Throughout the year Salisbury Playhouse stages a range of theatre, including plays, musicals, one-night events and children's productions. Many of these are created here in Wiltshire, using the skills of the Playhouse's on-site scenery and costume departments. City Hall is Salisbury's largest entertainment venue, with three seasons of live entertainment throughout the year and a wide range of productions to suit all interests. Showcasing a variety of art forms, Salisbury Arts Centre is dedicated to making imaginations fly. From theatre and dance to music, comedy, film and exhibitions you can discover a vibrant hub of arts activity housed in a beautiful deconsecrated church building.

The Pound arts centre in Corsham is a thriving venue, offering a year-round programme of performances, films and exhibitions. The purpose-built, 300-seat concert hall at Wiltshire Music Centre in Bradford on Avon hosts over 120 events each year. According to Sean Rafferty of BBC Radio 3 it has 'the finest acoustic outside London', so it's no surprise that it attracts internationally renowned musicians and world class music from classical to folk and jazz. Pay a visit to the Wyvern Theatre in Swindon for a mixed programme of concerts, comedy, drama, dance and musical theatre.

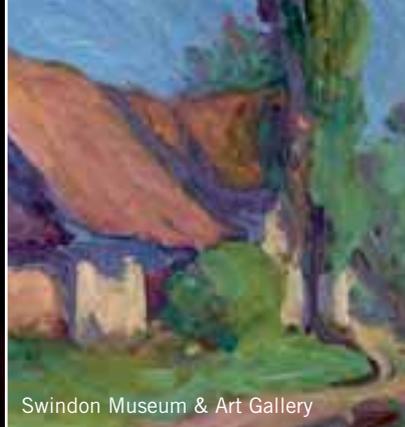

If you fancy a little hands-on creativity, Eastcott Studios in Swindon offers fun for all the family, including the chance to 'create a pot' or personalise a variety of gifts, plates and mugs. Visiting artists are also happy to demonstrate their craft and share their skills in a range of workshops. Fisherton Mill in Salisbury is the south of England's largest independent gallery, with on-site café and artist studios. The gallery exhibits work by many leading artists, furniture makers and sculptors, as well as an ever-changing array of jewellery, ceramics, glasswork and decorative items.

Swindon Art Gallery features impressive and thought-provoking works by some of Britain's finest modern artists, including

Lucien Freud, Leon Kossoff, Frank Auerbach, Alfred Wallis and LS Lowry, alongside an important collection of studio ceramics. Corsham Court houses furniture by Chippendale, mirrors by Adams and portraits by Sir Joshua Reynolds. The magnificent Inigo Jones Staterooms at Wilton House include the famous Double Cube Room – the finest surviving 17th century stateroom in England – which was designed to display family portraits by Van Dyck. This is the greatest collection of paintings by the artist still to be seen in its original setting. Just over the county border the Victoria Art Gallery in Bath offers an exciting programme of exhibitions and a stunning permanent collection from Turner and Gainsborough to the moderns.

Other historic properties such as Stourhead, Old Wardour Castle, Old Sarum, Longleat, Lacock, Arundells and Bowood host events such as open-air theatre and concerts, historic re-enactments, firework displays and Christmas celebrations.

SAVOUR

the taste of Wiltshire

What better way to start the day than by tucking into a hearty Wiltshire breakfast?

The market town of Calne is where the long-established English technique of producing ham – known as the Wiltshire Cure – was invented by the Harris family, so bacon is sure to be on the menu. Home-made bread, jam and preserves feature widely and, who knows, you could even find yourself dipping your toasted ‘fingers’ into the very eggs you collected fresh from the hens that morning!

If a busy day’s sightseeing leaves you feeling peckish, our coffee shops and tea rooms – as well as the occasional ice cream parlour – offer a mouth-watering array of cakes and pastries, giving you the perfect excuse to linger over elevenses or treat yourself to afternoon tea. Wiltshire also has an abundance of friendly watering holes – from town pubs and country pubs to pubs with gardens and pubs with ghosts – offering tasty food and drink at reasonable prices. Walkers, cyclists, families, dogs... all are widely welcomed.

Seasonal menus at restaurants, wine bars and bistros across the county also make the most of Wiltshire’s top quality local produce. Happily, as life moves at a gentler pace here, you can take your time to savour the culinary magic wrought by our chefs, bakers and brewers and while away the hours over a long lunch or dinner with family and friends. From burgers to biryani; seafood to steak and chips you’ll find something to whet your appetite here in Wiltshire.

If celebrations are the order of the day, The Bell at Ramsbury and The George & Dragon at Rowde have both been awarded two AA Dining Rosettes for the high standard of their food. When you really want to push the boat out, look no further than the Red Lion Freehouse at East Chisenbury, The Harrow at Little Bedwyn, or the hotel restaurants at Lucknam Park near Chippenham and Whatley Manor near Malmesbury, all of which are holders of a coveted Michelin star (or two!).

Many unique Wiltshire recipes have been handed down through the generations, including Wiltshire Lardy Cake, Wiltshire Loaf (a cheese, not a bread) and Malmesbury Pudding, all of which taste as good today as they have ever done. If you fancy sampling a home-grown pint or two then keep an eye out for local craft beers and ales from Wadworth Brewery, Box Steam Brewery, the Three Daggers at Edington and the Red Lion at Cricklade, not to mention Ramsbury Brewery & Distillery which has recently added vodka to its repertoire!

With such an emphasis on top quality local fare you won’t be surprised to hear that Wiltshire sets great store by its mouth-watering range of foodie events. Sample the beer festivals in Devizes (February and July), Chippenham and Malmesbury (April) and Swindon (May). Or savour the food and drink festivals in Devizes (May) and Calne, Melksham and Salisbury (September). Wander among an array of tempting stalls, inhaling the aromas of freshly-ground coffee and herbs, and eat your fill from sizzling sausages, barbecues or a hog roast, before washing it all down with one of our lip-smacking local brews - Tunnel Vision, Bishop’s Tipple and Flint Knapper are just a few to look out for.

Across the county you’ll find top quality indoor and outdoor markets, as well as farmers’ markets specialising in local food from local producers, such as seasonal fruit and vegetables, meat, poultry and game, cheeses, free range eggs, artisan loaves and more.

When it comes to local produce, Wiltshire’s pedigree is second to none. Eating out is one of the many pleasures to be enjoyed on a holiday or short break here, and our food and drink is one taste you’ll definitely want to acquire.

Spend some quality TIME

Wiltshire is no stranger to top notch designer shopping.

Housed in the tastefully converted Grade II Listed buildings of the former Great Western Railway works – with over 90 stores selling a wide range of high street and designer labels at up to 60% off recommended retail prices, plus cafés, restaurants and children’s activities – the McArthurGlen Designer Outlet Swindon makes a great day out for all the family.

At the other end of the scale, numerous small, family-run outlets continue to thrive across the county as they have for generations, offering a relaxed and unhurried shopping experience. The streets of Salisbury and many historic Wiltshire towns are home to a wealth of independent retailers, so it’s well worth taking time out of your busy schedule to discover some of the unique items on offer.

If you are looking for elegant shopping in a stylish, cosmopolitan setting, Marlborough and Bradford on Avon are popular choices. Many of the Bath stone buildings on Corsham’s High Street are independent businesses, providing irresistible retail opportunities, while the bustling village of Tisbury offers a tempting selection of shops and amenities.

If there were a prize for the most unique location it would surely go to The Henge Shop, located within the world’s largest prehistoric stone circle at Avebury. Elsewhere around the county, other popular centres serve visitors and local communities alike: find antique clocks and barometers at P A Oxley near Calne, or cask and bottled beer from the Box Steam Brewery near Trowbridge.

In Salisbury you can discover organic toiletries at Neal’s Yard Remedies, or locate fine lingerie at Annie’s Just Jane. Head to Chas H Baker for classic and contemporary menswear, Goodfayre for ethical goods or Ingrams for briefcases, handbags and luggage. An eclectic range of shops can be found in the covered Cross Keys Shopping Centre, while Fisherton Mill, with its galleries, studios and workshops, is an Aladdin’s cave of interesting and individual items. Anyone with a sweet tooth should head straight to Roly’s Fudge Pantry and if you want to stock up on plants and gifts, Wyevale Garden Centre is the perfect place.

As befits a county famous for its local produce there are plenty of farm shops to choose from, including Allington Farm Shop near Chippenham, Neston Park Farm Shop near Melksham, Edington Farm Shop near Westbury or Berwick Farm Shop near Salisbury.

Wiltshire is proud of its range of markets too, from indoor and outdoor to farmers’, artisan and international. What better way to spend an hour or two than browsing the many stalls where every imaginable item is on offer, from top quality fruit and vegetables to meat, fish, cheeses, eggs, haberdashery, clothes, shoes, jewellery and more.

Trowbridge, Wiltshire’s county town, has a Market Charter dating back to the year 1200 with markets every Wednesday. Salisbury’s Charter Market has been coming to the city on Tuesdays and Saturdays (except the third Tuesday in October) for almost 800 years. Other bustling market towns include Amesbury (Wednesday), Bradford on Avon (Thursday), Calne (Friday), Chippenham (Friday and Saturday), Corsham (Tuesday), Devizes (Thursday), Marlborough (Wednesday and Saturday), Melksham (Tuesday), Pewsey (Tuesday), Royal Wootton Bassett (Wednesday), Warminster (Friday) and Wilton (Thursday). Additional markets may take place on other days.

See visitwiltshire.co.uk/whats-on/markets for up-to-date details.

Then skydiving is the activity for you: one day, one jump, one big adventure! Tandem skydiving over the stunning backdrop of Salisbury Plain with GoSkydive or Skydive Netheravon is the experience of a lifetime. The excitement and exhilaration of the jump combined with the elation and sense of achievement as you land is unrivalled. On a hot air balloon flight with Aerosaurus Balloons you can experience 'lighter than air' travel as you drift peacefully at dawn or dusk over some of Wiltshire's most beautiful countryside. Throw in complimentary in-flight champagne and a post-flight certificate signed by your pilot, and you are all set for a truly memorable trip.

If you would prefer to be at the controls yourself, GoFly offers both flight training and fun air experience flights in a selection of aircraft, from modern day training planes to the majestic vintage Tiger Moth. Racing School Experiences at Castle Combe Circuit give you the chance to drive real race cars on a real race circuit: kick up dust with a spin round the rally field, or buckle up and enjoy a white knuckle passenger ride. Those with a head for heights will enjoy the Challenge Wall at Golden Gecko Climbing which offers an exciting 6-metre roped climb. With 10 auto belays and over 40 routes of varying difficulty there is something for all abilities.

Sign up for a Salisbury Plain Safari and their Land Rover Defender will transport you to parts of Salisbury Plain that are inaccessible to cars or buses and inhabited by wildlife that exists only here. Take spectacular views of Europe's largest chalk downland, throw in some rutted tracks, deep puddles and bumpy roads, and you have all the makings of an adventure to write home about. A day spent driving the byways and tracks on and around Salisbury Plain with Stonehenge ATV is another great way to see this amazing landscape, and also the best fun ever! Their two-seater, road-legal Quadzilla buggies are able to cross any terrain, and local knowledge means they can go places that others can't... no dull tracks in a field, only the open countryside, access all areas!

If you want to become part of the action, Virtual Warfare is home to a tactical game of team-based combat known as Battlefield Live – laser combat for the 21st century, with massive ranges and ultra-realistic arenas to make the blood freeze in your veins. On the same site, Wessex Raceway has created one of the largest indoor tracks in Europe – free of pillars, and with no ramps or bridges. For those who prefer water-based activities, the Cotswold Water Park has plenty to choose from including windsurfing, sailing, kayaking, cable skiing and banana boating.

Following a treasure trail is a great way to have fun with friends and family. Download a self-guided booklet to one of over 20 locations in Wiltshire from Treasure Trails and solve the intriguing clues which can be found on buildings, statues and monuments, revealing fascinating history and beautiful scenery. Alternatively, find your way around Salisbury the fun way with Text Quest. You are sent a text with directions and a clue; reply with the right answer and you receive the next clue. Pit your wits against other teams and race against time, or amble round at your own pace, enjoying the sights... it's up to you.

Real life escape games have been taking the world by storm. Your team is confronted by an array of puzzles, riddles and clues and has to work together to solve the mystery and escape from captivity before time runs out. Unique, interactive challenges are offered by 11th Hour Escape Rooms, Live Escape Salisbury and Salisbury Escape Rooms – choose your favourite theme, or make a weekend of it and tackle all three. But remember, for each challenge you have just one hour, and the clock is ticking...

SALISBURY

– quintessentially English

The perfect fusion of ancient and modern, Salisbury is rooted in time and place.

The historic heart of the city offers a charming mix of architectural styles with many of the medieval names preserved, so keep an eye out for locations such as Cross Keys Chequer, Trinity Street and Blue Boar Row.

Among an array of tempting markets throughout the year, the hustle and bustle of the historic Charter Market fills the Market Place on Tuesdays* and Saturdays as it has done for almost 800 years. As well as all your favourite high street stores you'll find plenty of independent retailers offering unique and individual items, while eating out is an ever-popular pastime thanks to an enticing range of tea and coffee shops, pubs, bars and restaurants.

The world-renowned Ageas Salisbury International Arts Festival is just one of many inspirational events to choose from. Arts venues include Salisbury Playhouse (the South West's leading producing theatre), Salisbury Arts Centre and City Hall. With plenty of entertainment throughout the day and on into the early hours, Salisbury has been awarded Purple Flag status – the 'gold standard' for a great night out.

The Cathedral Close is an oasis of calm in the midst of the city. As you pass through its heavy wooden gates and emerge into the peaceful haven beyond you can almost believe you are stepping back in time, such is the weight of history seeping from every pore. As well as the Cathedral itself, other attractions hidden behind these massive stone walls include The Salisbury Museum, The Rifles Berkshire & Wiltshire Museum, the National Trust's Mompesson House, Sarum College and Arundells, home of former Prime Minister Sir Edward Heath.

Salisbury has more than its fair share of parks and green spaces, ideal for a picnic or romantic stroll. On the northern outskirts of the city you'll find Old Sarum (the original site of Salisbury), Boscombe Down Aviation Collection and The Raymond McEnhill Stadium, home of Salisbury Football Club. Salisbury Racecourse and the World Heritage Site of Stonehenge are just a short drive away.

Fast, regular trains link Salisbury to London Waterloo in just 90 minutes, making it an unbeatable destination for day trips and short breaks alike. For a comprehensive guide to the city and surrounding areas download VisitWiltshire's free Salisbury App by searching 'Salisbury' in the App Store or on Google Play... and to find out more about why Salisbury makes such a great base for visiting Wiltshire go to visitsalisbury.co.uk

homes in glorious surroundings

Throughout the ages the drama and majesty of Wiltshire's landscape has provided the perfect backdrop for the homes of the well-to-do, which come complete with equally outstanding surroundings, from acres of landscaped parkland to intimate formal and informal gardens.

Several of Wiltshire's great houses owe their breathtaking pastoral settings to the vision of master landscaper Lancelot 'Capability' Brown. At Bowood he created a flowing mix of woodlands and lawns sloping down to a winding lake, a fitting backdrop for the impressive 18th century house designed by Robert Adam. Longleat House, an outstanding example of high Elizabethan architecture, is surrounded by 900 acres of stunning 'Capability' Brown landscape. The 22 acres of parkland at Wilton House are also said to owe much to his brilliance.

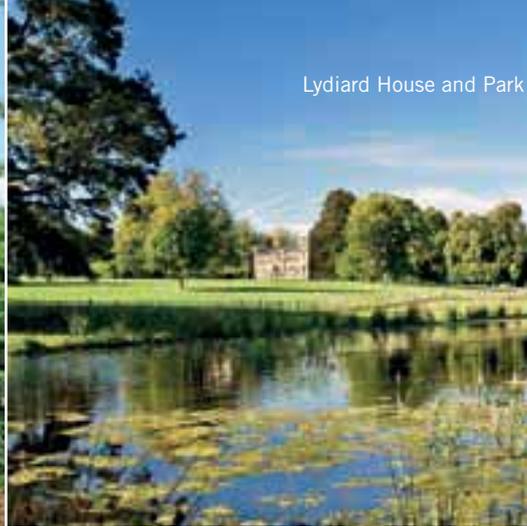

But he is not the only horticultural genius to have left his mark on Wiltshire... Stourhead, Wiltshire's most famous garden, was designed in the 18th century by 'Henry the Magnificent' to include classical temples around a central lake. Now owned by the National Trust the garden is open all year, and from March to October (as well as in the run up to Christmas) you can also visit the Palladian mansion of Stourhead House.

Set in the idyllic Frome valley, The Peto Garden at Iford Manor is an Edwardian version of Tuscany, featuring romantic Italianate gardens cut into the hillside. With a perfect setting amid the rolling downland of Cranborne Chase Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, Larmer Tree is an extraordinary example of Victorian extravagance, recognised by English Heritage as a 'Garden of National Importance'.

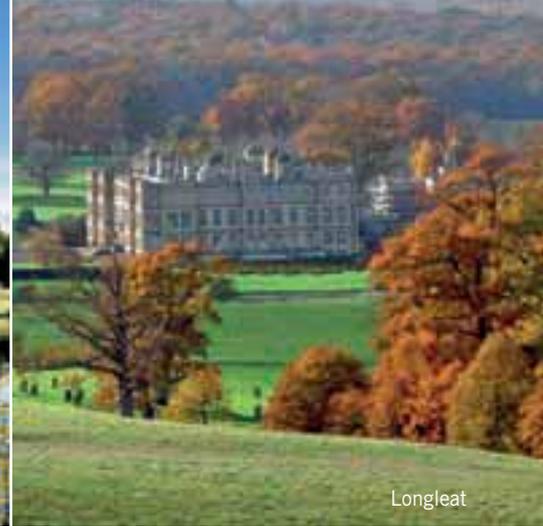

Other antidotes to our overcrowded cities include Abbey House Gardens in Malmesbury, whose 5 acres sit beside the 12th century Abbey Church, straddling the river. Familiar to many as a TV location from Wolf Hall and Poldark, Great Chalfield Manor near Melksham is a charming 15th century house with an Arts & Crafts garden. The Palladian jewel of Lydiard House, renowned for its elegant state rooms, original family furnishings and portraits dating from Elizabethan times, is surrounded by 260 acres of parkland with a lake and 18th century walled garden.

In Salisbury’s Cathedral Close Arundells, home of former Prime Minister Sir Edward Heath, has a charming walled garden stretching down to the River Avon, as does The Rifles Berkshire & Wiltshire Museum nearby. Just a few doors away across Choristers’ Green, Mompesson House is a perfectly proportioned Queen Anne mansion offering beautifully furnished interiors and a peaceful walled garden.

On the borders with Gloucestershire and Hampshire respectively, the 600 acres at Westonbirt Arboretum contain one of the world’s finest collections of temperate trees and shrubs, while Sir Harold Hillier Gardens has the largest number of Champion Trees in the British Isles, as well as 42,000 plants from around the world.

At many of these properties, tempting tea rooms are an added bonus, giving you the opportunity to relax and unwind whilst treating yourself to delicious cakes and pastries in beautiful surroundings.

Take a walk through TIME

On the southern edge of Salisbury Plain, Amesbury is the nearest town to Stonehenge and close to other ancient monuments such as Woodhenge, the Cursus, the Avenue and Durrington Walls. Following recent excavations the town can lay claim to a history dating back more than 10,000 years - visit Amesbury History Centre for a collection of Mesolithic artefacts.

On the northern outskirts of Salisbury lies the massive earthwork now known as Old Sarum. Starting out as a Neolithic community some 5,000 years ago, it later became an Iron Age hill fort. Subsequently inhabited by Romans, Saxons and Normans, it finally developed into a flourishing medieval settlement and the original city of Salisbury. Today you can see the ruins of a royal palace, a castle and no less than two earlier cathedrals.

Iron Age hill forts are a recurring feature of the Wiltshire landscape. Barbury Castle lies in the North Wessex Downs Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty; Oldbury Castle overlooks the Cherhill White Horse; the 23-acre site at Battlesbury Camp is one of the best preserved in the county; and Bratton Castle, on the edge of Salisbury Plain, contains within it an even older Neolithic long barrow.

With archaeology collections of outstanding national importance, Wiltshire's museums are the perfect place to unearth the secrets of our journey through time. Treasured exhibits at The Salisbury Museum include the Monkton Deverill Gold Torc, recovered from a Bronze Age burial mound, and the grave of the 'Amesbury Archer', the richest Beaker burial in Britain. A world-class gallery of archaeology here houses one of Europe's most extensive collections of Stonehenge and prehistoric artefacts. Spanning Neolithic, Bronze Age, Iron Age, Roman, Saxon and Medieval times, the galleries at Wiltshire Museum in Devizes cover 500,000 years of Wiltshire's history. In 'Gold from the Time of Stonehenge', award-winning displays tell the story of the prehistoric landscapes of Stonehenge and Avebury and feature finds excavated from the World Heritage Site. For evidence of Roman occupation look no further than the Roman Baths in Bath, home to the Sacred Spring, the Roman Temple, the Roman Bath House and finds from Roman Bath.

Later civilisations have also left their mark, bequeathing tangible connections with the past. Built as a fortress in the late 11th century, Ludgershall Castle was once a royal hunting lodge with a great hall, tower and domestic apartments, as well as a castle farm, stables and kitchens. Dating from the 14th century Old Wardour Castle was badly damaged in the English Civil War. Today, its unusual, hexagonal ruins provide a picturesque lakeside setting for picnics. Finally, on the Somerset border, the impressive 14th century Farleigh Hungerford Castle offers hidden treasures, including rare medieval wall paintings in the chapel and lead 'death mask' coffins in the crypt.

Ancient and modern come together in the Saints and Sinners heritage trail, twinning four of the county's historic churches with four popular pubs and hotels – find out more at visitwiltshire.co.uk/ideas-and-inspiration/itineraries

Discover Wiltshire's WILD SIDE

At Longleat, Britain's first ever safari park, you can stand tall with giraffes, walk on the wild side with lemurs and come face to face with many of Africa and Asia's majestic animals. Say hello to amazing aquatic creatures at Penguin Island and Ray Bay, check out the sea lion escorted Jungle Cruise past Gorilla Colony, and walk through Monkey Temple. There are opportunities to feed the animals, including sea lions, deer, giraffe and rainbow lorikeets, while the very brave can take on the BBC Deadly Adventure, embark upon the Deadly Safari or test their mental and physical abilities in the Deadly Challenge. Uninterrupted views of the animals at Cotswold Wildlife Park give you a real sense of being in the wild, as rhinos graze on the lawns with only a ha-ha between you. See eye-to-eye with giraffes, walk with lemurs, or explore the Tropical House to meet free-roaming sloths, birds and bats. Watch the penguins being fed, take a ride on Bella the Train, or explore the Skymaze treehouse adventure playground. For a taste of the tropics, visit Studley Grange Butterfly World to walk among some of the world's most beautiful butterflies, flying freely against a backdrop of luxuriant plants. Visit the reptile house, or head to the animal paddock to meet meerkats, otters, goats, guinea pigs, rabbits and farmyard animals.

At Bowood, Tractor Ted's Little Farm offers lots to enjoy inside and out. Meet friendly farm animals, handle rabbits, stroke lambs and see newly hatched chicks, then tackle the mini tractor track and diggers in the den. All ages will find something to enjoy at Cholderton Charlie's, including exquisite rare breeds of rabbit and poultry, Eriskay ponies, saddleback piglets and lots of other baby animals. At peak times there are pig races, chick/rabbit handling sessions and tractor-trailer rides. An indoor play barn, outdoor adventure play areas, sandpits, ride on tractors and trampolines ensure that, wet or dry, there is plenty to do. Roves Farm also offers fun for all the family, come rain or shine! Events include meet and feed the farm animals, free tractor and trailer rides, children's craft sessions, a heated play and activity barn, ball pond, bouncy castle and pedal tractors, plus den building and outdoor adventure play.

If you enjoy being surrounded by wonderful wildlife, from orchids and fritillaries to dragonflies and bats, as well as fantastic and varied birdwatching opportunities, the Cotswold Water Park is a great year-round destination. With 150 lakes set over 40 square miles it also offers lovely off-road cycle routes and miles of peaceful footpaths. Langford Lakes nature reserve is an attractive stopping off point for a host of wild birds. In summer, look out for Canada geese, tufted duck, great-crested grebe and pochard. Patient watchers may spot the turquoise flash of a kingfisher, and there have even been sightings of the spectacular osprey. In winter, shoveler and wigeon arrive to join the resident ducks, and one of the UK's most endangered and elusive birds, the bittern, has occasionally been seen creeping silently through the reeds. As spring arrives, watch for grebes shaking their heads in their dramatic courtship display.

If birds of prey are more your bag, Forest Falconry gives everyone the opportunity to experience the thrill of flying some of nature's most spectacular birds. Your totally hands-on adventure takes place at the eleven acre woodland site where you have the chance to handle, train and hunt with hawks, falcons and owls. With up to three world-class flying displays each day, the Hawk Conservancy Trust is a full day out for all the family. From the tiny Pygmy Owl to the impressive Steller's Sea Eagle over 150 birds of prey are on view, and every visitor can hold one!

“Wilton Windmill near Marlborough is the only working windmill in Wessex and still grinds flour for sale”

The history of textile manufacturing in Wiltshire is a long and illustrious one, with many Wiltshire towns owing their modern-day affluence to the production of woollen broadcloth in centuries past.

With the exception of Wilton Carpets the textile industry is long gone, but outstanding examples of industrial architecture remain, providing a tangible bond with the past and making Wiltshire the ideal place to uncover the history of textile manufacturing.

In Trowbridge the history of weaving dates back over 1,000 years and the woollen cloth industry here has left a rich architectural legacy ranging from the late-16th to the mid-19th century. Trowbridge Museum continues the theme, with a nationally important collection relating to West Country woollen cloth production. Displays include working looms and you can even have a go at handloom weaving yourself. At the peak of its textile production Bradford on Avon was home to more than 30 cloth factories. Today, the impressive walls of Abbey Mill still flank the river, while the cottages of spinners and weavers can be seen clinging to the hillside.

Wiltshire has long been renowned for its local ales and the brewing industry here thrives to this day. Founded in 1875, Wadworth Brewery still operates from its original home in Devizes, where its mighty Shire horses are an ever-popular sight as they make their deliveries round the town. On a guided tour you can meet these gentle giants of the equine world, see the sign writers at work and learn how traditional ales are made, before rounding off your visit with a tutored sampling session.

Canals were vital to Wiltshire’s prosperity in years gone by. Running right across the centre of the county, the Kennet & Avon Canal was originally used to transport goods and materials during the Industrial Revolution; today it makes a peaceful and unhurried way to enjoy Wiltshire’s timeless scenery, either walking and cycling along the towpath, relaxing aboard a colourful narrow boat, or taking to the water in a canoe. The ‘K&A’, as it is affectionately known, is also home to the world’s oldest working steam-powered beam engine at Crofton Pumping Station near Marlborough.

In 1835 Isambard Kingdom Brunel chose to site the factory for his Great Western Railway in Swindon. Today you can step back in time at STEAM Museum, housed in the Grade II Listed buildings of the former railway works, and discover the story of the men and women who built, operated and travelled on this iconic railway. Keen train enthusiasts can also experience our railway heritage at Swindon & Cricklade Railway.

Further links with the past can be found at our many local museums. Calne Heritage Centre tells the story of the town and its surrounding area; Chippenham Museum and Heritage Centre highlights aspects of trade and industry including a working model of a flourmill; while displays at Royal Wootton Bassett Museum depict the town’s social, rural, commercial and industrial history.

“Interactive exhibits
bring history to life”

Boscombe Down Aviation Collection

Atwell-Wilson Motor Museum

Museum of Army Flying

Vintage Classics

Royal Signals Museum

Fleet Air Arm Museum

Complementing Wiltshire’s award-winning archaeological museums are collections in and around the county with a different tale to tell, from iconic aircraft to motoring memorabilia...

Some take you on a nostalgic trip down memory lane with vehicles from yesteryear; others reveal the ingenuity and endeavour of Britain’s armed forces, from centuries past to the present day.

Most of the exhibits at Atwell-Wilson Motor Museum in Calne are cars from the 1920s onwards, but you will also find motorcycles, mopeds and bicycles, a model lorry collection, a reconstructed 1930s style garage complete with vehicles, and a range of interesting memorabilia. If a visit here inspires you to get behind the wheel and live your dream of driving a classic car, Vintage Classics are just the ticket. Vehicles available to hire include the Jaguar MKII (of Inspector Morse fame), the Audi Ur Quattro Turbo (as in the BBC’s Ashes to Ashes) and many other models from Austen and Alfa Romeo to Triumph and Daimler.

Boscombe Down Aviation Collection is a working museum in an historic World War One hangar. Here, over 100 exhibits, including 30 aircraft and cockpits to sit in, bring the history of test flight in the UK to life. Dress up in a flight suit and helmet, be a fighter pilot, and watch ongoing restoration on real aircraft. The Museum of Army Flying sits beside the busy Army Air Corps Airfield at Middle Wallop, near Salisbury. Exhibits housed in two large hangars, including over 35 fixed wing and rotary aircraft, tell the story of British soldiers in the air, from the pioneering days of balloons and kites to modern helicopter operations. Fleet Air Arm Museum, near Yeovil houses the largest collection of aircraft in Europe and tells the story of the Royal Navy in the air. Take a trip on a replica aircraft carrier with the ‘HMS Ark Royal Experience’, encounter aviation history from the early pioneering years to today’s high tech air power, and climb aboard the first British Concorde.

Classic cars and military MUSEUMS

“The new REME Museum opens in 2017”

REME Museum preserves the heritage of the Royal Electrical and Mechanical Engineers. Its collection houses more than 100,000 items, including over 100 military vehicles, more than 1,700 medals, more than 950 weapons and over 2,000 uniform pieces. There is also an extensive archive which includes letters, pamphlets, photographs, paintings, instruction manuals and vehicle specifications. REME is in the process of moving to Wiltshire and will re-open at Lyneham in 2017. The Royal Signals Museum near Blandford Forum traces the history of the British Army's battlefield communications, from the introduction of the telegraph in the Crimea via espionage and satellites to today's digital battlefields of cyberspace and electronic warfare. Family-friendly, interactive displays allow you to guide a laser beam, break codes, practice Morse code and more.

A county for all

SEASONS

Any time is Wiltshire time:

Spring meadows carpeted with flowers... shadows of hay bales lengthening in the setting sun... autumn mist floating over winding river valleys... frost glistening on ancient standing stones: this is rural England at its very best, the perfect antidote to overcrowded cities.

Easy to explore, yet off the beaten track, Wiltshire is one of Britain's best kept secrets. It's an enchanted place where you feel close to the earth and the ever-changing big skies. The landscape's mood alters with the seasons, connecting you not just to nature, but to time itself. See how the light changes the texture of the hills and think of others admiring the same spectacle over thousands of years. At the heart of the county lies the vast, untouched expanse of Salisbury Plain. At times gentle, at times wild, this untamed plateau with its big skies and broad horizons is home to rare and endangered species which thrive in the sparsely populated landscape.

Almost half the county's landscape has been designated an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. Parts of north and west Wiltshire lie within the Cotswolds, where dry stone walls, narrow winding lanes and honey-coloured villages meld seamlessly into rolling hills. Acres of ancient woodland can be found on the borders of the New Forest National Park and in the Savernake Forest. Stretching in a giant undulating swathe across the south of the county, Cranborne Chase and the West Wiltshire Downs are a nationally protected landscape, as are the North Wessex Downs, from the lush meadows of the Vale of Pewsey to more austere expanses of upland.

Among many havens for flora and fauna are the 37 nature reserves managed by Wiltshire Wildlife Trust, covering a variety of natural habitats from chalk grassland and woodland to wetland and bog. Lower Moor Farm near Cricklade is a mosaic of lakes, brooks and ponds linked by boardwalks, ancient hedges, woodland and meadows, while Langford Lakes between Salisbury and Warminster is the perfect spot for birdwatching enthusiasts. The National Nature Reserve at North Meadow on the outskirts of Cricklade is renowned for its spectacular display of rare Snakeshead Fritillaries during April, while West Woods near Marlborough and Grovely Woods near Wilton are carpeted with bluebells in May.

Miles of ancient drove roads and quiet country lanes make exploring Wiltshire a pleasure. Among the many charming hamlets nestling amid unspoiled, rolling countryside, the stars of the show are Castle Combe, arguably the prettiest village in England, and the stunning National Trust village of Lacock, both of which are great favourites with film-makers.

Teffont Evias

Castle Combe

Fritillaries, North Meadow Cricklade

Water Vole

North Wessex Downs

Wiltshire is also blessed with outstanding chalk streams and rivers. The gin-clear waters of the Wylde, Nadder, Bourne and Ebbel offer excellent trout fishing and some delightful riverside walks. Flowing south from Pewsey the River Avon supports an abundant variety of wildlife, including the endangered water vole. The River Kennet winds through the North Wessex Downs, skirting the prehistoric sites of Avebury and Silbury Hill. Even the young River Thames gets a look in, as it meanders through the north of the county, close to the Saxon town of Cricklade.

Wiltshire is calming, comforting, refreshing. So make 2017 the year you escape to the country and let Wiltshire put back what the rest of the week takes out.

ESCAPE

and let time stand still

With over 8,200 paths for walkers and cyclists, Wiltshire's breathtaking countryside might well have been invented with outdoor pursuits in mind.

There's something for all levels of enthusiasm, and travelling under your own steam gives you time to appreciate our beautiful and varied landscape.

Whether you are a seasoned expert, a keen amateur or just starting out, you'll find cycle routes to suit, from stress-free family outings around the Golden Way to demanding long distance trails, including one of several National Cycle Routes and part of the National Byway. You'll also find a range of exciting cycling events throughout the year to watch or take part in, including the Wiltshire 100 and Big Wheel Bike Ride in September.

Wiltshire is blessed with an outstanding array of walks that can comfortably be accomplished within half a day, leaving ample time to relax over lunch. Follow in the footsteps of the ancient drovers, meander through our market towns or amble along the towpath of the Kennet & Avon Canal. You'll also find plenty of challenging longer routes where you can stride out to your heart's content: walk the Wansdyke, roam the Ridgeway or tackle the Thames Path. Depending on how energetic you are, you can take on their entire length over several days (sturdy shoes recommended) or cherry pick the sections that suit you best.

If you're happy heading off in the morning with just a packed lunch and a map for company, that's fine by us. But if you'd like a little help with planning an itinerary, arranging places to stay – even transporting your luggage – local specialists such as Footpath Holidays and Walking Holidays in Wiltshire are only a phone call away. Take the children... take the dog... above all, take your time!

Other ways to experience our breathtaking countryside include pony trekking or a hands-on adventure with birds of prey; a day's fishing or a round of golf; a narrow boat trip or canoeing on the Kennet & Avon Canal. And if the weather throws a spanner in the works there are ample indoor activities on offer too: relax with a range of luxurious spa treatments or master new skills on a cookery course.

When you're out and about, the many interesting properties in the care of The Churches Conservation Trust are great places to stop for a breather, and at end the day a refreshing drink in one of our country pubs goes down a treat – for details of a heritage trail combining the two go to visitwiltshire.co.uk/ideas-and-inspiration/itineraries

Details of walking and cycling routes around Wiltshire, as well as a wide range of other things to do, can be found on visitwiltshire.co.uk/things-to-do/activities and there's additional information on walking Wiltshire's white horses on whitehorsewalk.co.uk

Maps and routes for cyclists and walkers can be downloaded from the Connecting Wiltshire website: connectingwiltshire.co.uk And for an excellent range of maps and brochures to help you on your way contact one of the Information Centres listed on page 63.

A wide range of walker- and cyclist-friendly accommodation can be found on our website, and many accommodation providers actively welcome outdoor enthusiasts by offering extra facilities such as drying rooms for wet clothing. They are also often happy to advise on their favourite local routes. Go to visitwiltshire.co.uk/accommodation for details.

Find the perfect place to stay

Plenty to choose from - Wiltshire has a fantastic range and variety of accommodation, including stylish hotels, comfortable bed & breakfasts, well-equipped self-catering cottages, friendly campsites and quirky alternative accommodation.

Special offers - Our accommodation providers pride themselves on offering excellent value for money with a range of discounts available year round. So keep an eye on the special offers section on our website to make sure you don't miss a bargain.

Quality you can trust - All accommodation providers featured in this guide are partners of VisitWiltshire. All have been quality assessed by, or have applied for a rating from, one of the national bodies or one of their recognised agencies, or are part of one of the local schemes listed below.

What the ratings mean

Quality in Tourism and the AA now rate guest/serviced accommodation to the same criteria, awarding one to five stars in each of the categories

(or one to five pennants for holiday, touring, and camping parks and holiday villages in the case of the AA).

These ratings reflect the overall quality of the experience. Places that 'go the extra mile' may achieve a Gold or Silver Award (Quality in Tourism) or, in the case of the AA, Red, Yellow, Gold or Silver Stars. Please be aware that ratings may change throughout the year.

The Wiltshire Approved Accommodation Scheme is a stepping stone towards the National Quality Assurance Standards. It is delivered in partnership with VisitEngland and, while accommodation providers meeting the standard will not yet be participating in the national scheme, they will be demonstrating their commitment to quality improvements. A qualified assessor will have inspected properties against a standard, indicating they are legal, safe and clean.

Accommodation providers listed under Alternative Accommodation have been quality assessed, but not star rated due to the individuality of this category. It covers accommodation such as campervans, wigwams, tipis, yurts, and accommodation that cannot provide facilities or services associated with mainstream accommodation.

VisitWiltshire Accommodation Charter - The VisitWiltshire Accommodation Charter is not a quality rating, but indicates businesses that have signed with VisitWiltshire to agree to provide clean, safe and legal accommodation.

Pricing and meal arrangements - Unless otherwise stated, hotel and guest accommodation prices are per room, per night including breakfast; self-catering prices are per week. Breakfast is not usually included at self-catering, camping or caravanning establishments.

Please be aware that prices listed within this publication are the starting prices for each establishment and may vary according to the type of room, the day of the week, or the time of the year.

Meeting your requirements - Please read accommodation descriptions carefully, cross-checking symbols against the key on page 64. Remember to confirm the price, facilities and cancellation policy at the time of booking.

How to find your accommodation - Accommodation within this guide has been grouped according to location (eg Corsham, Lacock and Villages). Within each location, establishments are grouped by accommodation type (ie hotels, guest accommodation, self-catering, camping and caravanning). Within each of these accommodation types, providers are listed alphabetically by town or village and then by establishment name. Standard accommodation entries have a map reference which cross-refers to the map on page 65.

Find out more - For further details on quality assessments visit our website: visitwiltshire.co.uk/accommodation/grading-information

Details of businesses included in this guide are based on information supplied by them at the time of going to press. Whilst every effort has been made to ensure accuracy, VisitWiltshire can accept no liability for any errors or omissions.

All attractions featured in this publication are members of the Wiltshire Association of Visitor Attractions.

Experience by rail!

Leave your car at home and stay in one of the market towns along the TransWilts route – Chippenham or Trowbridge, Melksham or Warminster, or in the historic city of Salisbury.

Wiltshire's railway network links 13 stations in the county with fast, frequent train services every day of the week. Trains run until mid-evening on all lines.

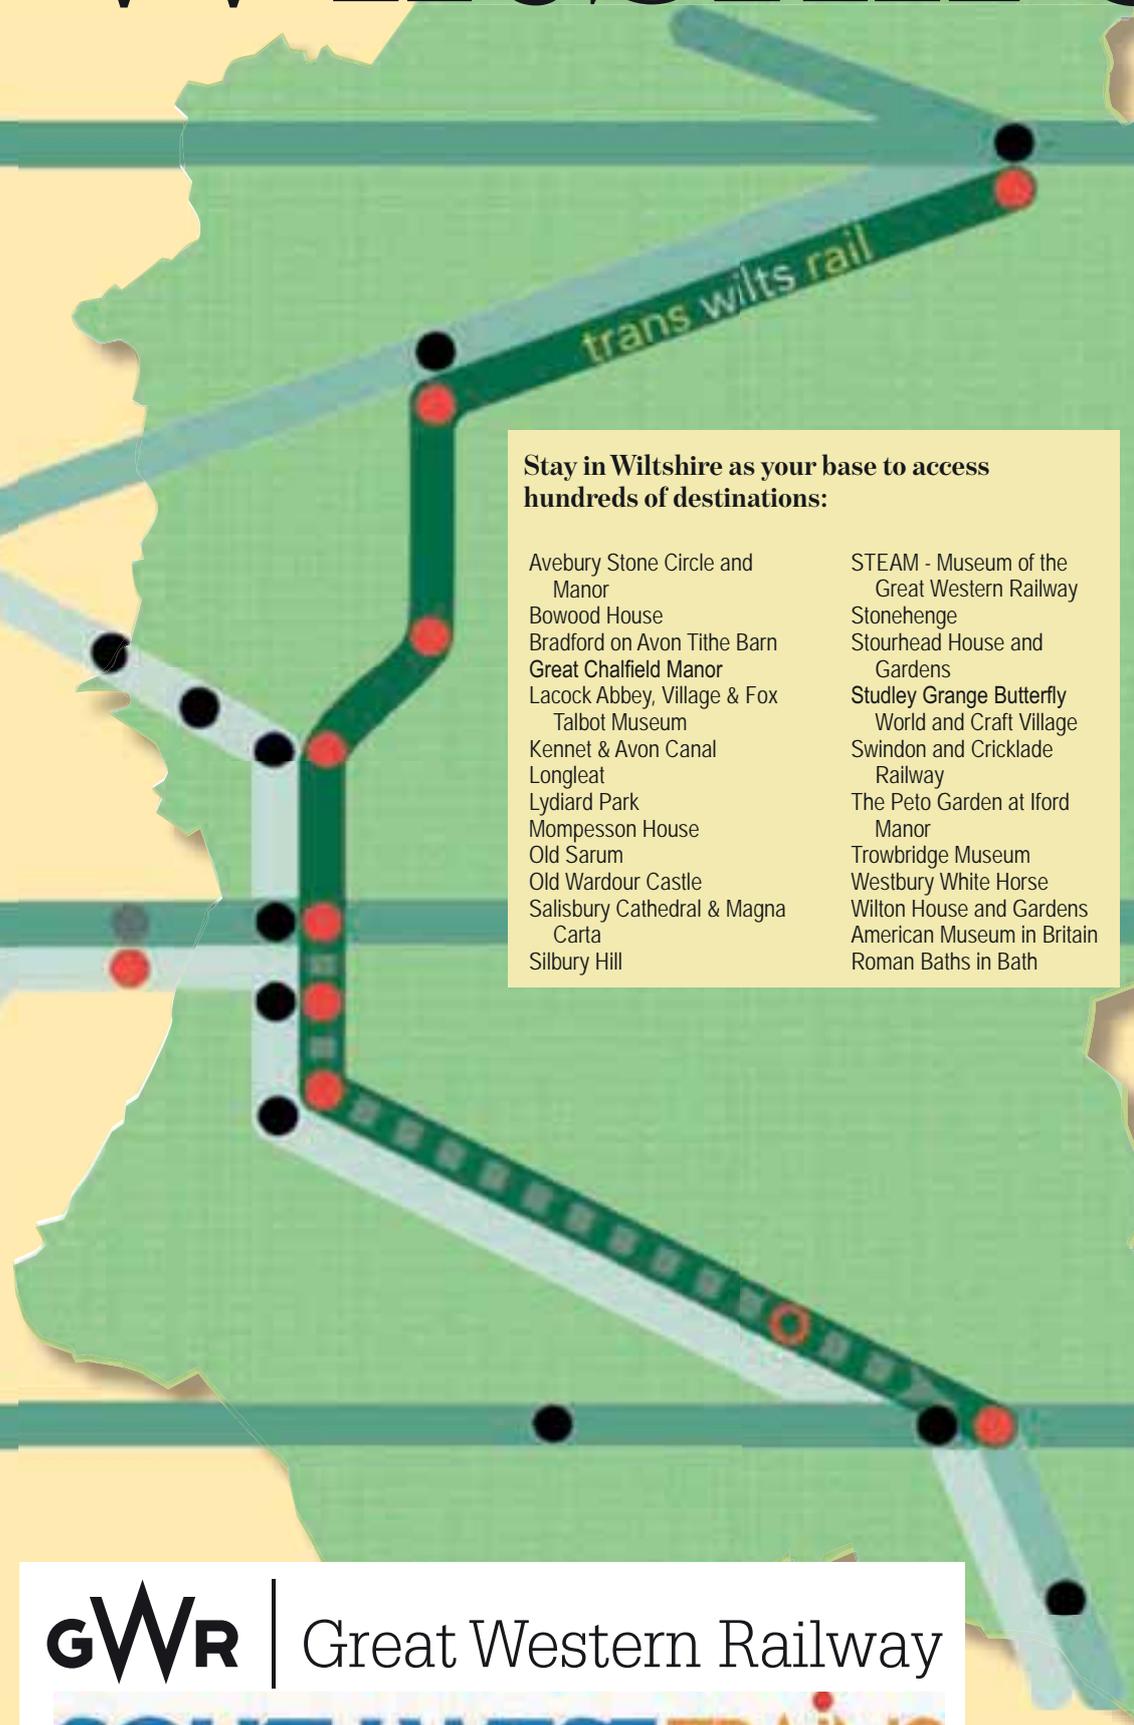

There's no need to book ahead – simply turn up and travel. Ask for a "Freedom of Severn and Solent" - either 8 days in 15, or 3 days in 7. Train tickets can be bought at the stations for single trips or day returns, or you can buy Rovers that give you unlimited train travel within an area for one day or longer. A Rover covers the whole TransWilts line, train services in Wiltshire and connects to a wide area beyond, including Bath and the Solent coast.

Use the freedom of a Rover for your next holiday in Wiltshire for less than £10 a day!

For more information about Wiltshire rail routes and stations, visit TransWilts at <http://transwilts.org/tw/routes> where you can also book Rovers in advance online by clicking on the "Freedom of Severn and Solent" ticket link.
