

TIMELESS PLACES

"Find new stories around every corner"

Whether you're here for a day, a weekend or longer, Wiltshire offers numerous opportunities to connect with the past whilst enjoying the present, as each of our timeless towns and villages has something unique to offer. Stylish independent shops and colourful markets. Tempting pubs and restaurants. Fascinating history and heritage. Great entertainment.

Although Wiltshire is particularly renowned for its ancient sites, later civilisations made their mark as well. Leaving an outstanding collection of castles, stately homes and manor houses, spanning the centuries and bringing history to life. Set against the drama and majesty of the Wiltshire landscape their surroundings are equally impressive, from acres of breathtaking parkland to intimate formal and informal gardens.

Wiltshire's museums are great places to unearth the secrets of our journey through time. As well as exhibits relating to army history, motor vehicles and aviation, you'll find archaeology collections of outstanding national importance, including treasured exhibits from Avebury and Stonehenge.

In centuries past, Wiltshire owed its prosperity to railways, canals and the production of woollen broadcloth. Examples of this rich industrial heritage abound. On top of which, there are breweries and distilleries to visit. Motor and horse racing to enjoy. And a great range of animal attractions to experience, including Britain's first drive-through safari park.

Wiltshire is rolling green downs, ancient woodlands and bustling market towns. Parish churches, grand historic houses and country inns. Timeless monuments and contemporary luxury. Local ales and picnics in the park. In short, the England you love in one county. Visit today to walk through time.

SALISBURY TRADITIONAL ORIGINAL...

ENGLAND'S HISTORIC CITIES

Salisbury is a city of ageless beauty and captivating history, where medieval magnificence meets contemporary culture.

At its heart is Salisbury Cathedral, a beacon which has attracted travellers for hundreds of years. Gathered around it is an inspiring city, alive with fascinating people, places and experiences. Salisbury's story reaches back through the centuries and the city is proud of this rich heritage. Yet it is no stranger to original thinking...

Salisbury Cathedral offers one superlative after another, from the tallest spire in Britain and the world's oldest working clock, to the finest original 13th Magna Carta manuscript. Other attractions within the Cathedral Close include The Salisbury Museum, Mompesson House and The Rifles Berkshire & Wiltshire Museum. Nearby is the Parish Church of St Thomas, with its magnificent Doom Painting. On the outskirts of the city you'll find both Old Sarum, the original site of Salisbury, and River Bourne Community Farm. Boscombe Down Aviation Collection, Salisbury Racecourse and Stonehenge are on the doorstep too.

In the historic heart of the city, you'll find an excellent range of unique, independent retailers as well as high street stores and regular markets. Tempting tearooms and coffee shops abound, together with cosy pubs, riverside inns and friendly restaurants. Complementing the exciting year-round programme of festivals and events, Wiltshire Creative - combining Salisbury Playhouse, Salisbury Arts Centre and Salisbury International Arts Festival - provide a fabulous annual programme of arts and entertainment.

Just 30 minutes by train from London Waterloo, Salisbury makes an unbeatable destination for day trips and short breaks alike. It is also an excellent base for discovering all that Wiltshire has to offer. For a comprehensive guide to the city and surrounding areas go to visitsalisbury.co.uk. Explore the city with the England Originals augmented reality app where visitors can access exclusive virtual experiences. Visit Salisbury.co.uk

TIMELESS WONDERS

Stonehenge and Avebury have a powerful magnetism that has drawn people to them down the centuries. Two megalithic stone circles, within one outstanding World Heritage Site. Steeped in history, they stand testament to the ages. Visit this year to experience their magic for yourself.

The ancient Britons attached great significance to Stonehenge. Among its many unique features is its orientation on the rising and setting sun. Why it was built in this way remains a mystery to this day, but if you stand on Salisbury Plain at sunrise or sunset, it's easy to understand why people from around the globe continue to pay homage to this magnificent site.

Arrive at Avebury as dawn breaks over the North Wessex Downs and you'll instantly appreciate the appeal this sacred place held for our ancestors. A massive outer bank and ditch surround the world's largest stone circle. Which, in turn, encloses two smaller stone circles and part of the village.

Within the wider landscape lie further ancient structures including West Kennet Long Barrow, one of Britain's largest Stone Age burial sites, and the massive man-made mound of Silbury Hill. Look out for Wiltshire's distinctive White Horses, too, carved into the rolling chalk downs. Of the original thirteen, eight can still be seen today, standing watch over the countryside.

Wiltshire has been a special place for a very long time. Nowhere else in England will you find such a concentration of fascinating ancient sites. For thousands of years travellers have been seduced by their grandeur and majesty, and still they inspire a sense of wonder in visitors today.

AMESBURY

A small market town that has Stonehenge (2 miles) and in nearby Durrington you will find Woodhenge (1.5 miles), all within its Parish. Historic Amesbury is an attractive town along the River Avon, now known to be the oldest continuous living settlement in this country, dating back over 6500 years BC.

In 2023 a new History Centre will open, housing one of Britain's largest Mesolithic collections. It will tell an amazing story, along with much more about Amesbury's history. Amesbury has hotels, bed and breakfasts, independent shops, restaurants and inns - the town is a great stopping point for travellers and visitors to Stonehenge and south Wiltshire. There is affordable parking with two coach spaces in the central car park.

Stonehenge is of course the closest attraction to Amesbury and the 2 mile walk across the historic landscapes both inspiring and interesting. Just to the north is Woodhenge - a Neolithic site which was first recognised through aerial photography taken in 1925. It is an equally interesting site to visit.

Closer to the town is Lords Walk which offers the combination of a unique view of the River Avon, as well as a walk along the old Line Tree Way, which historically led to the Abbey.

A visit to the 10th century church of St Mary and St Maker is a unique experience. Housed within is a 15th century clock that is believed to have been built for the Benedictine Abbey.

TIMELESS PLEASURES

"Step off the world for a while"

Wiltshire is an enchanted place where you feel close to the earth and the ever-changing big skies. The landscape's mood alters with the seasons, connecting you not just to nature, but to time itself. Sit on the downs at sunrise or sunset, see how the light changes the texture of the hills, and think of others admiring the same spectacle over thousands of years.

"What view did you wake up to this morning"

Almost half of Wiltshire's breathtaking landscape lies within an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. From the lush meadows of the Vale of Pewsey to more extensive expanses of unspoiled, the North Wessex Downs are a nationally protected landscape. As are Cranborne Chase and the West Wiltshire Downs, stretching in a giant undulating swathe across the south of the county. Acres of ancient woodland can be found on the borders of the New Forest National Park and in the Savernake Forest. While parts of north and west Wiltshire lie within the Cotswolds. At the heart of it all lies the vast, untouched expanse of Salisbury Plain, home to numerous rare and endangered species that thrive in this sparsely populated environment.

Amid the unspoiled, rolling countryside, charming hamlets nestle. A wide variety of natural habitats provide havens for flora and fauna. Miles of ancient drove roads and quiet country lanes make exploring a pleasure. And thousands of paths for walkers and cyclists make it perfect for outdoor pursuits.

Wiltshire is one of Britain's best kept secrets. Easy to explore, yet off the beaten track, if you're tired of the everyday, it's time for Wiltshire.
